SJU BY THE NUMBERS

1 The national ranking Saint Joseph's earned in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls of March 8, 2004. It marked the first time ever that the Hawks were the nation's top-ranked team during the regular season. Another number-one spot in SJU history came when Sports Illustrated gave the Hawks the top preseason ranking prior to the 1965-66 season.

2 Consecutive seasons Jameer Nelson led the Atlantic 10 Conference in assists per game. Nelson, who led the league in assists in each of his first two seasons on Hawk Hill (2000-01, 2001-02), is the only player in conference history to lead the A-10 in assists in consecutive seasons.

3 Three-point field goals, which the Hawks have specialized in. SJU heads into the 2005-06 season with a streak of 436 consecutive games making at least one three-pointer. Pat Carroll was SJU's most recent long-range specialist, finishing his career as the Hawks' all-time leader and the A-10 leader in career 3-point percentage (.445)

4 The number Jeffery Clark, the point guard on the 1980-81 team, would raise above his head to signal the team's famed "four-to-score" offense. The offense worked to perfection in SJU's stunning 49-48 upset of #1 DePaul in the 1981 NCAA Tournament.

Jack Ramsay (here with Joe Spratt) led his Hawk teams to 10 postseason appearances in 11 years, with a Final Four berth in 1961.

5 The Hawks won five consecutive Atlantic 10 regular season titles (from 2000-05) and share the conference record with the Massachusetts' teams of the mid-1990's.

6 Number of players referred to as the "Mighty Mites", which helped put Saint Joseph's on the national basketball map in the 1930's. The "Mites" – Jim Smale, Matt Guokas, John Kenney, John McMenamin, Dan Kenney and Joe Oakes– compiled a 54-17 overall mark from 1934-38.

7 Number of Saint Joseph's alumni that have been head coaches in the NBA. Only Indiana (11) has had more graduates coach in the league.

8 Number of Hawks to foul out of a January 10, 1976, double overtime loss at Xavier. SJU finished the game with two eligible players as the NCAA, at the time, had a 10-man limit on travel parties. That restriction was soon lifted following the contest. The eight disqualifications is still a NCAA Division I basketball record.

10 Number of times legendary coach Dr. Jack Ramsay guided his teams to postseason appearances in his 11 years. Ramsay, who compiled a 234-72 record over his tenure at SJU (1955-56 through 1965-66), led the Hawks to the NIT Final Four in 1956 and the NCAA Final Four in 1961.

11 Number of Middle Atlantic Conference Championships that Saint Joseph's won from 1959 through 1974. SJU competed in that league, which also included current Atlantic 10 Conference members La Salle and Temple, from 1957-58 through 1973-74 before joining the now-defunct East Coast Conference. The Hawks joined the A-10, their current league, in 1982.

14 Uniform number of Jameer Nelson, which was retired after the 2003-04 season. Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year, and the school's first-ever Wooden Award winner, while leading the Hawks to the magical perfect regular season and a berth in the NCAA Elite Eight.

17 Record for postseason coaching victories, NCAA and NIT combined, currently held by Phil Martelli.

18 Number of appearances in the NCAA Tournament. SJU has advanced to the Sweet 16 nine times, to the Elite Eight twice and to the NCAA Final Four once in 1961. It's also the number of 20-win seasons posted by SJU teams throughout the history of the program, including four under current head coach Phil Martelli.

19 Number of field goals made in a game by George Senesky against Rutgers-Newark on February 3, 1943. Senesky received the Helms Foundation Award given to the National Player of the Year and is the only Hawk player to lead the nation in scoring (23.4 ppg) in a season.

Jack McKinney is one of seven Saint Joseph's alumni to have worked as head coaches in the NBA.

20 Individual season scoring average, a mark rarely eclipsed by the normally balanced SJU offense over the years. Before Marvin O'Connor averaged 22.1 points per game during the 2000-01 season, the last Hawks to accomplish the feat were Pat McFarland and Mike Bantom, who both averaged 20.3 points per game during 1972-73. McFarland edged Bantom by one point for the scoring title that year, the closest race in SJU history. Jameer Nelson then achieved the feat in 2003-04 with his 20.6 mark.

27 Number of consecutive wins for the 2003-04 team which became the first team to go through the regular season without a loss since UNLV in 1990-91. The streak stands as the longest in SJU history.

30 School record for wins achieved by the 2003-04 team, which finished with just two losses en route to a final national ranking of number five.

33 Points scored by Delonte West in his "perfect game" on January 17, 2004 at Xavier. West made 12-of-12 field goals, went 3-for-3 from three-point range, and 6-for-6 from the foul line.

34 School record for rebounds set by John Doogan against West Chester State on February 18, 1953.

36 Number of games played by the 2004-05 squad, which is a school record. The Hawks played six games in the NIT as they reached the final.

47 School record for points set by Jack Egan against Gettysburg on January 21, 1961 and later tied by Tony Costner against Alaska-Anchorage on December 30, 1983.

SJU BY THE NUMBERS

John Doogan holds the SJU record for rebounds in a game with 34 in 1953.

50 The golden anniversaries of both the Hawk mascot and the Philadelphia Big 5 were celebrated in 2005-06. The Hawk made its debut on the court on January 4, 1956 (a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra). The Big 5, which marked its 50th anniversary last season, is one of the most unique arrangements in the nation and is known for the intense city rivalries. Saint Joseph's played rival Villanova in the first-ever Big 5 game on December 14, 1955, with the Hawks scoring an 83-70 win.

57.5 Number of seconds it took Marvin O'Connor to score 18 points in the Hawks' 91-90 loss to La Salle on March 3, 2001. The Hawk guard finished the game with a career-high 37 points, but his 18 points in the final minute will go down in SJU lore.

79.9 Free throw percentage for the 2005-06 Hawks, which was the best in the nation.

98 Victories compiled by the winningest four-year class in Saint Joseph's history - Tyrone Barley and Jameer Nelson.

120 Dollars - the cost of the first Hawk uniform purchased by Jim Brennan prior to the 1955-56 season. The most decorated mascot in the nation, the Hawk celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2005-06, having flown at every game since debuting at the Palestra against La Salle on January 4, 1956.

128 Most points scored by a SJU team. The Hawks defeated Nevada-Reno, 128-66 at the Palestra on December 15, 1971.

130 Record for games played in a career, set by Chet Stachitas. Classmate Dwayne Lee finished just one game shy with 129 played.

144 Number of coaching wins by Jack McKinney (1966-67 thru 1973-74), who later went on to coach in the NBA, winning Coach of the Year honors with the Indiana Pacers.

247 Combined point total in Hawks' 127-120 win in four overtime periods over Utah in the national third place game at the 1961 NCAA Final Four. It still stands as a school record for overtimes played by a SJU team and combined point total by two teams in a game.

309 Number of wins recorded by SJU coach Bill Ferguson from 1928-29 through 1952-53. Ferguson's win total and length of service (25 years) are SJU basketball records.

419 Career blocks record established by Rodney Blake from 1984-88. When he finished his career, Blake was the NCAA's all-time leader in career blocks. That record has since been broken.

1,444 Number of wins by Hawk teams over the 98 seasons.

2,094 SJU record for points scored in a career, established by Jameer Nelson from 2000 to 2004.

3,200 Capacity at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. SJU has sold out the building 124 times over the past 14 seasons.

Delonte West had the "perfect game" at Xavier on Jan. 17, 2004, making all of his shots - 12-for-12 from the field, 3-for-3 from beyond the arc and 6-for-6 from the free throw line.

3,500 Average number of times the Hawk flaps its wings during a regulation basketball game as estimated by ESPN's "flap-o-meter".

Steve Donches (far left) converts one of the most historic shots in Saint Joseph's basketball history, a buzzer-beater that lifted the Hawks to a dramatic 71-69 win over rival Villanova at the Palestra on January 16, 1966.

RETIRED NUMBERS

With the retirement of Jameer Nelson's number 14 on April 23, 2004, there are now four honored numbers in Saint Joseph's history. A total of seven players share the honor as the number four was worn by four standouts, spanning the decades of the 1940's, 1950's and 1960's.

GEORGE SENESKY 1940-43

Helms Foundation National Player of the Year in 1943...All-America selection in 1942-43...The 6-3 forward from Mahanoy City, PA, was the only Saint Joseph's player to lead the nation in scoring, averaging 23.4 points per game as a senior in 1942-43...His 515 points that year set a new school mark...Set school record for points in a game with 44 points against Rutgers-Newark (2/3/44), and his 19 field goals in that game is still the SJU record...Played for the Philadelphia Warriors of the NBA, and later coached the franchise to the 1956 NBA Championship...Member of SJU's Athletics Hall of Fame (1999) and Basketball Hall of Fame (1973).

Jameer Nelson's number 14 was raised to the rafters on April 23, 2004. The first announcement of the number retirement, however, came after the final regular season game on March 2, 2004. Nelson stated that he "had more games to play" and deferred it to the end of the season.

ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE

Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, the on-campus home of the Hawks, was named for the Saint Joseph's graduates who gave their lives in World War II. The building was officially dedicated on November 11, 1949 and two weeks later, played host to its first basketball game, a 62-46 loss to Rhode Island on November 26. Following that initial setback, SJU would go on to win the next 23 games in the friendly confines of the Fieldhouse. Overall, the Hawks have compiled an impressive 313-79 record (79.8 winning percentage) on Hawk Hill. Among the highlights of the Hawks' homecourt advantage through the years is a 34-game winning streak from the late 1950's to the early 1960's, an 11-0 record in 2000-01 and the unbeaten 11-0 mark as the Hawks put together the "perfect season" in 2003-04. All told, SJU has had only two losing records in the Fieldhouse over 58 seasons.

The facility underwent minor renovations from 1987 through 1991, but will receive an extensive makeover that began in October 2007. The project will enhance varsity and recreational athletics at Saint Joseph's and include a dedicated center for men's and women's basketball (more on pages 8-9).

A historic basketball arena, the 3,200-seat building has hosted 116 sellouts over the last 13 seasons. The excitement in the Fieldhouse was at a fever pitch in 2003-04 as capacity crowds filled the building to watch the Hawks make their historic run. Every game was a sellout, and it marked the second time in school history that the team averaged an attendance of 3,200 for the whole season, with 1997-98 being the other. Saint Joseph's hosted three NIT games in the Fieldhouse in 2004-05, with each crowd more enthusiastic than the last, as the Hawks won four games to reach the NIT Final Four in New York City.

HAWKS' HOMECOURT ADVANTAGE

- Sold-out Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse
- One of the most passionate fan bases in college basketball
- A student section which is one of the most loyal and enthusiastic in the nation
- A winning percentage of 85 percent over the last seven seasons
- An overall winning percentage of 79.8 percent in 58 seasons

"Our fans' passion, physical presence and vocal support emboldens our team, psychologically challenges our opponents and creates an atmosphere that is second to none."

- Phil Martelli

The passion of Hawk fans in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was recognized by Sports Illustrated (SI.com) in 2003 as one of "The 100 Things You Have to Do Before You Graduate." Ranked 12th was "Go to a Saint Joseph's basketball game and shout 'The Hawk Will Never Die' – the most defiant cheer in college sports."

The SJU faithful gave the Hawks a tremendous boost in the postseason of 2004-05 and 2005-06, as Saint Joseph's hosted a total of five NIT games in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse.

ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE

Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse is sold out every year and in 2003-04, the Hawks played to standing-room only crowds as they made their run to a perfect regular season. SJU has won 80 percent of its games in the Fieldhouse through the years, including 85 percent over the past seven seasons.

THE PALESTRA

Saint Joseph's and Penn brought back a treasured Palestra tradition on January 28, 2006 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Big 5. The schools agreed to allow their student sections to throw streamers onto the court after each team's first field goal. The throwing of streamers had been a staple at every City Series game until the practice was banned by the NCAA in 1985.

With the beginning of competition of the Philadelphia Big 5 in 1955, Saint Joseph's began utilizing The Palestra, on the campus of the University of Pennsylvania, as a home venue. The 2007-08 season marks the 52nd year of Big 5 play and the 53rd of the Hawks' use of the site. Although the majority of Hawk games are now played on campus, The Palestra remains an integral part of the history of Saint Joseph's basketball.

First opened during the 1926-27 season, the building is one of the premier basketball meccas in the world. The 8,722-seat arena has been the home for more than 70 years of Penn basketball and 50 years of Big 5 doubleheaders. It has hosted a multitude of events, including 50 NCAA Tournament games as part of 19 national championship competitions, as well as numerous NIT contests, a season of women's professional games (American Basketball League), and even NBA games in the early history of the league.

Saint Joseph's has won 68 percent of its Palestra games over the years, and continues to schedule every Big 5 home game in the building. This season, the Hawks will play in The Palestra six times, hosting Penn State, Villanova, La Salle and Temple, and also facing Penn and Drexel.

The Palestra was mentioned at the top of the list of "Must Visit Sports Shrines" in Sports Illustrated's (SI.com) "100 Things You Have to Do Before You Graduate." The Palestra was cited as "Host to the first NCAA basketball championship game in 1939, and countless classic Philadelphia Big 5 matchups". It is the subject of a 2007 documentary film, "The Palestra: Cathedral of Basketball."

"The opportunity for our program to play in the most historic building in college basketball is an honor."

- Phil Martelli

The Palestra

THE PALESTRA

The Palestra, one of the most historic arenas in college basketball, is the Hawks' "home away from home." Saint Joseph's has played an average of five games per year there over the past five seasons, and a total of 466 games in the program's history.
