

BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 ... A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administrations at the five major universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at The Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For over 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out fictional character Rocky Balboa to be named the city's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News.

In a city that is passionate about their sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,700 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra...it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series... it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business... it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when they get thrown into their first City Series game...it's student-athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

The Big 5 – only in Philadelphia.

ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation work. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. In doing so, the Atlantic 10, under the leadership of commissioner Linda Bruno, instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better. 1,170 student-athletes were named to the Fall 2006 Honor Roll and 1,119 were named to the Spring 2007 Honor Roll.

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors one student-athlete per sport as the A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. In 2006-07, over 170 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition. Also, the Atlantic 10 provides postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes.

Five A-10 schools were among the 51 cited for having five or more athletics programs recognized by the NCAA for their latest Academic Progress Rate scores. Fordham led the Atlantic 10 in the number of high-performing squads with nine teams receiving awards. Only the Ivy League (eight) and Patriot League (six) had more than the A-10's five, which was matched by the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Charlotte cross country and track & field standout Jane Daniels was chosen as a 2006-07 NCAA Division I Coca-Cola Community All-American. The national honor includes a $5,000 donation in her name to the charity of her choice. Daniels chose to split her donation among Girls on the Run International, the Charlotte University City YMCA and the Oostburg (Wisc.) Community Education Foundation.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of nearly 73 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

George Washington earned the Atlantic 10's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament after claiming the 2007 men's basketball championship, its second title in three seasons, in the league's inaugural tourney in Atlantic City, N.J. The Colonials were joined in the NCAA Tournament by Xavier, which registered a 79-77 opening round victory over Brigham Young. In addition, Massachusetts posted an 89-87 overtime win versus Alabama in the opening round of the NIT.

In women's basketball, George Washington became just the fifth team in league history to go unbeaten in Conference play. GW was joined in the NCAA Tournament by Temple and A-10 champion Xavier, with the Owls advancing to the second round and the Colonials reaching the Sweet 16. George Washington ended the year ranked 11th by ESPN/USA Today and 15th by the Associated Press. In addition, Charlotte and Saint Joseph's garnered WNIT berths.

Basketball Coaches Teleconference

Every Monday from Jan. 7-Mar. 17, the A-10 will conduct a teleconference with each of its head men's basketball coaches and one selected women's coach. Each coach will discuss their team and answer questions from the media. Members of the media are strongly encouraged to participate in the questioning. To access the call, written notification to the Atlantic 10 communications department is required. Saint Joseph's coach Phil Martelli will participate on the call at 11:41 a.m. Eastern time. Media members should contact the A-10 communications department for the complete schedule.

2007-08 TOURNAMENTS

Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off Nov. 12-13 at Syracuse, NY

Semifinals & Final – Nov. 21 and 23 at Madison Square Garden

Saint Joseph's will open the 2007-08 season in the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off. The Hawks will travel to Syracuse and play Fairleigh Dickinson in the first round on November 12 in the Carrier Dome. Host Syracuse will take on Siena in the other first-round matchup.

The winners will face each other on November 13, with the losers of the first-round games also meeting that evening. The team that wins both games will advance to the NIT Season Tip-Off Semifinals in New York's Madison Square Garden on November 21. The championship game will be played in New York on November 23.

Saint Joseph's last participated in the Preseason NIT in 1996-97, where the Hawks lost to 10th-ranked Duke in Durham, N.C.

2008 Atlantic 10 Championship Boardwalk Hall, Atlantic City, NJ March 12-15

For the second consecutive year, the Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Tournament will be held at Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City, NJ. The 32nd edition of the championship will take place from March 12 through 15.

Boardwalk Hall was dedicated on May 31, 1929. Known primarily as the home of the Miss America Pageant from 1940 to 2004, Boardwalk Hall was placed on the United States Register of Historic Places as a National Historic Landmark on Feb. 27, 1987. Most recently, Boardwalk Hall underwent an extensive restoration and rehabilitation process. Begun in November 1998, the five-phase renovation cost $90 million and transformed Boardwalk Hall into a state-of-the-art special events arena under the auspices of the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority.

Boardwalk Hall has hosted numerous athletic events, including college basketball, world championship boxing, the New Jersey State High School Wrestling Championships, professional tennis, college football, and minor league hockey.

The top 12 teams will compete in the Championship, which begins on Wednesday, March 12, with opening round play. The winners will then join the top four seeds for quarterfinal round action on Thursday, March 13. The semifinals will take place on Friday, March 14, with the final round set for Saturday, March 15. The championship game will be televised nationally on ESPN at 6:00 p.m. The conference champion will receive the league's automatic bid to the 2008 NCAA Tournament.
