2005-06 REVIEW

Sparked by a resilient quartet of seniors and the emergence of a dynamic group of underclassmen, Saint Joseph's University added another memorable chapter to its men's basketball history in 2005-06. Surviving one of the nation's most grueling schedules, the Hawks hit their stride late in the year: advancing to a second straight Atlantic 10 title game, playing in their sixth consecutive postseason tournament, and coming within a whisker of a trip back to the Big Dance.

Despite all these successes, prospects for another memory-making campaign were not assured when the season began. Already facing a slate that included more than a dozen games against tournament-tested teams, the Hawks were confronted with the challenge of replacing the A-10 Player of the Year, another emotional team leader, and the departure of a third starter a year early to the NBA Draft. Yet these were tests that returning seniors Dwayne Lee, Dave Mallon, Chet Stachitas, and Rob Sullivan had passed before.

Stachitas, a Second Team All-Atlantic 10 selection, proved capable of filling the Hawks' need for a primary scorer. The Academic All-Atlantic 10 and All-District choice netted his 1,000th career point during the season and finished among SJU's single season and career leaders in three-point field goals.

Lee followed up his breakout 2004-05 season with an equally impressive senior campaign. The Jersey City native was an iron man, playing nearly every minute for Phil Martelli's club. He upped his scoring and rebounding totals, while efficiently directing the attack and ranking among the Atlantic 10's top defenders.

Sophomore Abdulai Jalloh, who began to emerge during the non-conference slate, poured in a career-high 30 points against Ohio State and added 27 versus Gonzaga. The Second Team All-A-10 pick finished the season as the team's top scorer and rebounder while placing second in assists and steals.

Mallon and freshman Ahmad Nivins saw their roles take shape. Mallon solidified the middle for SJU defensively. Nivins, who would be named to the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team, provided the Hawks with an athletic presence off the bench, leading the team in blocks and finishing second in rebounds.

Dave Mallon, along with classmates Dwayne Lee, Chet Stachitas and Rob Sullivan, led a resilient group of Hawks, who came within a point of the A-10 title and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

After hitting the game winning basket in a win over Temple, sophomore Rob Ferguson developed into a versatile offensive weapon and provided the team with a fourth double-figure scoring option by season's end. Classmate Pat Calathes also developed as the 6-10 playmaker took command of his unique skill and provided the team with another weapon heading into the Conference tournament.

Several Other Hawks saw their playing time increase as the season progressed, including freshmen Alvin Mofunanya and Edwin Lashley. Junior Artur Surov also contributed in the post. Sullivan headlined an energetic group of reserves that included Pete Kathopoulos and Marcus Mitchell.

The Hawks held a record of 10-12 on Valentine's Day when Martelli challenged his seniors to maximize what remained of their careers. They responded with a late run that carried SJU to the cusp of the program's third A-10 title.

SJU rattled off five straight wins to close the regular season. Then at the A-10 Tournament in Cincinnati, SJU dispatched Dayton in the opening round and then routed fourth-seeded Saint Louis in the quarterfinals. The team's winning streak reached eight games as it topped Temple in the semifinals, in what proved to be Hall of Famer John Chaney's final game. The tournament final pitted the Hawks against the hometown favorite Xavier. With a ticket to the Big Dance on the line, SJU rallied from a double-digit first half deficit only to have the Musketeers edge the Hawks with late free throws.

The postseason saw Saint Joseph's seeded second in the NIT field where SJU renewed its rivalry with Rutgers in a first-round victory before succumbing in overtime to an underrated Hofstra squad that had knocked off Final Four participant George Mason twice late in the year.

The Hawks led the nation and shattered the school record for free throw shooting percentage (79.9). SJU also reached the postseason for the sixth straight year. Ultimately though, the 2005-06 season will be remembered for the resilience of a remarkable senior class. Winners of 96 career games, the second highest four-year total in school history, this quartet crafted their own chapter in the university's storied hardwood history.

2005-06 GAME RECAPS

SJU 70 - Lafayette 47: Abdulai Jalloh scored a career-high 18 points and Chet Stachitas added 15 as Saint Joseph's ran away from Lafayette, 70-47, in the season opener for both teams before a sold-out crowd at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. Jalloh got the Hawks out to a quick start with eight points and two steals which were converted into baskets in the first four minutes of the game, as SJU led 11-3. SJU held Lafayette without a basket for a span of six minutes to build the lead to 31-13 at 6:34 and then to 41-18 by halftime. Dwayne Lee, who was in early foul trouble, had seven assists and just two turnovers in 22 minutes of action. Dave Mallon came off the bench to grab a career-high eight rebounds, with seven of them in the first half. Rob Ferguson made the first start of his career and responded with seven points, six rebounds and a career-high four assists. Ahmad Nivins began his collegiate career in the starting lineup and had six points, five rebounds and two blocks.

SJU 72 - Fairfield 41: Chet Stachitas scored a game-high 16 points and Rob Ferguson matched his career-high with 14 as Saint Joseph's beat Fairfield, 71-42, and handed the Stags their worst home loss in school history. It was the Hawks' second consecutive 20-plus point win to start the year. Dwayne Lee (seven assists) and Abdulai Jalloh added 13 points apiece for SJU, which shot 55 percent from the floor and out-rebounded Fairfield, 34-21. Ferguson had 10 points by the intermission and shot 7-for-9 in the game.

Davidson 100 - SJU 94: SJU fell to Davidson in overtime, 100-94, despite a game-high 25 points from Chet Stachitas. Dave Mallon forced the OT with a 3-pointer at the buzzer in regulation but Davidson grabbed the momentum at the beginning of the extra period and scored five straight points to put the Hawks in an 88-83 hole. The Wildcats would lead by as many as eight points, and SJU could come no closer than 92-89. SJU trailed 40-33 at halftime, and by as much as 11 in the second half, but Dwayne Lee scored all 18 of his career-high points in the final half and the OT to pull the Hawks closer. With Davidson up 81-77 at :18, Stachitas nailed a 3-pointer at :12 to pull the Hawks within one. Two more free throws gave Davidson the 83-80 lead setting the stage for Mallon's tying shot. Ahmad Nivins scored 14, while Mallon and Rob Ferguson each had 13.

SJU 69- Drexel 59: Abdulai Jalloh scored a career-high 22 points and led a balanced scoring effort as SJU defeated Drexel, 69-59, in the first intra-city game of the year. The Hawks led wire-to-wire, running out to a 10-0 lead in the first five minutes, and then 31-20 by halftime. Jalloh scored 17 in the second half as the Hawks still had to fight off a Drexel challenge late in the game. Dwayne Lee scored 16 points, as did Chet Stachitas, who hit a big 3-pointer with 4:33 left after Drexel pulled to within 52-45. The Hawks held Drexel to just 32 percent shooting (8-for-25) in the first half. Jalloh grabbed a career-high nine rebounds while Ahmad Nivins blocked five shots.

Chet Stachitas put on a shooting clinic in the Jimmy V. Classic at Madison Square Garden. The senior scored a career-high 27 points, with 6-of-7 from 3-point range as the Hawks defeated Kansas in the nationally-televised game.

SJU 70 - Kansas 67: Chet Stachitas matched his best scoring game with 27 points on a career-high six 3-pointers to lead SJU to a 70-67 victory over Kansas in the Jimmy V. Classic at Madison Square Garden. The senior forward made four 3-pointers in as many attempts over the game's final 14:27, but it was his free throw with 17 seconds to go that gave the Hawks a 70-67 lead. Stachitas was 6-for-7 from 3-point range and the Hawks finished 10-for-21 from beyond the arc, 6-for-9 in the second half. Dwayne Lee added 13 points and seven assists, while Ahmad Nivins had 11 points. SJU opened the second half with a 9-3 run, during which it took the lead for the first time. After Kansas regained it at 6:19, Stachitas hit his sixth 3-pointer at 4:19 to give the Hawks the lead for good.

Ohio State 81 - SJU 74: Ohio State hit its first seven 3-pointers and survived a second-half rally by Saint Joseph's to win, 81-74, at the Palestra. SJU fell behind quickly, allowing the Buckeyes to take a 25-19 lead less than 10 minutes into the game. Then trailing, 43-25, the Hawks rallied and pulled to 51-46 on a 3-pointer by Dwayne Lee with 9:16 left, but the Buckeyes restored the lead to 57-46. OSU remained ahead the rest of the way, although the Hawks pulled to within 70-66 on Abdulai Jalloh's layup with 1:03 left. But a length of the court pass, ensuing foul and 3-point play gave Ohio State a 72-66 cushion. With high scorer Chet Stachitas held in check (9 pts) before fouling out, Jalloh hit a career-high 30 points. Lee also bettered his career-high, scoring 20 points.

Bucknell 63 - SJU 51: Bucknell used a 16-0 run, which included a slew of 3-pointers, en route to a 63-51 win over Saint Joseph's. Ahmad Nivins led SJU with a career-high 17 points, including some buckets in the second half that helped the Hawks narrow a 16-point deficit to single digits a few times. The Hawks were frustrated by Bucknell's defense for most of the evening, hitting 36 percent for the game on 17-of-47 shooting. Chet Stachitas, who came into the game averaging 18 points and leading the nation in 3-point percentage, was held to 12 points on 3-of-14 shooting, including 2-of-11 from 3-point range. The Hawks shot a season-low 22.7 percent from 3-point range.

SJU 70 - Saint Mary's 66: Abdulai Jalloh scored 21 points and Rob Ferguson added a career-high 20 to help Saint Joseph's hold off a late Saint Mary's rally to win, 70-66. Ferguson reached his career-high with 16 in the first half as SJU shot 68% from the floor to build a 43-30 lead. Saint Mary's cut it to 53-51 with an eight-point run as the Hawks missed 14 of their first 17 shots in the second half. With the Hawks holding a narrow 55-53 lead, Ferguson got his first points of the second half when he converted a 3-point play inside to make it a five-point game with 6:46 to go. The Gaels did not get closer than four points after that. Dwayne Lee iced the game with two foul shots with 3.9 seconds to go. Leading scorer Chet Stachitas scored only four points, 13 below his season average.

#8 Gonzaga 102 - SJU 94: SJU hit a McCarthy Athletic Center record 15 3-point field goals, but fell short in its bid to upset #8 Gonzaga, 102-94, on New Year's Eve. Despite trailing 47-33 late in the first half, the Hawks went on a 20-8 run to close to within 55-53 early in the second half. SJU took the lead twice, with the second being a 79-78 margin with 6:07 to play. GU regained the lead, but the Hawks pulled within 93-90 on a 3-pointer by Chet Stachitas at :48. The Zags' free throw shooting (11-for-12 in the final minute) secured the win for the home team. Abdulai Jalloh had a team-high 27 points on 6-for-12 shooting while Stachitas made 5-of-10 3-pointers to score 24. Dwayne Lee added 13 points and nine assists and freshman Ahmad Nivins had 11 points and eight rebounds.

Xavier 62 - SJU 58: SJU's homecoming to Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was not a good one as the Hawks suffered a rare home loss to Xavier, 62-58, in the A-10 opener. The Hawks, despite owning a 29-22 halftime lead, allowed Xavier to make a 12-0 run that left the Hawks trailing, 41-38. The teams traded leads the rest of the way, and with SJU trailing 60-56 with :18 to go, the Hawks committed a critical turnover on an inbounds play, ending their hopes of victory. Dwayne Lee led four players in double figures with 16 points and six assists, Abdulai Jalloh had 15, and Ahmad Nivins had his first career double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Chet Stachitas had 11 points, but went scoreless in the second half.

SJU 59 - Temple 57: Rob Ferguson's put-back with 2.2 seconds to play lifted the Hawks to a 59-57 win over Temple at the Palestra. The Hawks had inbounded the ball with 19.3 seconds remaining and Abdulai Jalloh's attempt was off-target, but went into the hands of Ferguson. Ferguson put it in from the baseline, giving SJU its seventh consecutive win over their city rival. The Hawks scored all but one field goal in the first half from beyond the arc, going 11-for-17 in 3-point attempts over Temple's zone. Jalloh had a game-high 18 points in the first half, making 6-of-7 3-pointers. SJU trailed by six, 47-41 at 10:05, but Dave Mallon scored all of the points in a 7-0 run that returned the lead to SJU. Jalloh was the Hawks' only double-figure scorer with 22 points, while Dwayne Lee had eight points and six assists.

2005-06 GAME RECAPS

UMass 68 - SJU 58: SJU saw its eight-game winning streak vs. Massachusetts come to an end as the Minutemen scored a 68-58 win in Amherst. The Hawks started out strong and held a 13-8 lead, but went cold and without a basket for a six-minute stretch, allowing UMass back into the game and a 23-23 tie at half-time. The Hawks suffered from an eight-minute scoring drought in the second half, allowing the home team to take a 43-34 lead, which the Minutemen increased to 55-40 with 5:32 remaining. SJU did pull to within 64-58 with 29 seconds left, but UMass went 8-for-10 from the foul line in the final 1:20. SJU was limited to a season-low 16 percent from 3-point range, making just 4-of-25. Rob Ferguson led the Hawks with 15 points on 6-for-8 shooting, while Abdulai Jalloh had 14, with seven from the foul line.

#17 George Washington 82 - SJU 70: Saint Joseph's went scoreless for nearly six minutes in the first half as #17 George Washington scored an 82-70 victory at the Smith Center. The Colonials took control in the first half as the Hawks were 1-for-11 on 3-pointers, and used a 12-0 run to take a 38-23 halftime lead. SJU opened the second half with an 11-3 run to pull within 41-34, thanks to three consecutive 3-pointers by Chet Stachitas. GW answered with a 3-pointer and long jumper that put the home team back up by 10 points, and the Hawks failed to get any closer. Stachitas finished with 14 points, all in the second half, while Dwayne Lee also added 14. Leading scorer Abdulai Jalloh, a native of nearby District Hts., MD, struggled with just nine points on 2-for-8 shooting.

Charlotte 57 - SJU 50: Charlotte took advantage of cold shooting by Saint Joseph's to earn a 57-50 win in the first meeting of the teams as A-10 members. It was SJU's second loss at the Fieldhouse this season and only the fourth loss on campus in the past four years, marking the first time since 1998-99 that SJU lost consecutive games in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. SJU led 41-32 with 12:30 remaining, but would not score for the next nine minutes, allowing Charlotte to go on an 18-0 run to take a 50-41 advantage at the 4:53 mark. Dwayne Lee had a chance to give the Hawks the lead back with less than 30 seconds to play, but misfired on a 3-pointer. Chet Stachitas and Rob Ferguson were the only Hawks to score in the second half, while the team shot a dismal 6-for-27 from 3-point range. Stachitas finished with 17 points and Ferguson had 12.

Last year's Saint Joseph's-Villanova game was showcased as part of the Big 5's 50th anniversary celebration. It was also only the fourth time in history that two teams with 3-0 Big 5 records met to decide the City Series title.

SJU 66 - La Salle 54: Chet Stachitas scored all 15 of his points in the second half as Saint Joseph's overcame a slow start to defeat La Salle, 66-54, at the Palestra to snap a three-game losing streak. The Hawks trailed by as many as 13 points in the first half, when they shot just 3-for-21 from the floor. La Salle led 27-16 at the break but the second half was a different story as Rob Ferguson and Abdulai Jalloh connected on 3-pointers to spark an early 8-0 run that got the Hawks back in the game. Stachitas hit one of his three 3-pointers to give SJU the lead for good at 39-38 with 10:30 left. Jalloh led the Hawks with 17 points and nine rebounds, while Ahmad Nivins came off the bench to grab nine boards.

SJU 54 - Saint Louis 39: Saint Joseph's was in control from the start, en route to a 54-39 win at Saint Louis in the first-ever meeting between the teams. The Hawks hit their first seven shots and rolled to a 34-19 halftime lead, and then opened the second half with a 10-0 spurt to increase the lead to 44-19. SJU slowed down from there, finishing that half with just 20 points, while committing 16 turnovers in the game. However, the Hawks frustrated SLU into shooting just 28.6% for the game and going on a 12-minute scoring drought for the Billikens' lowest scoring game since 1999-00. Abdulai Jalloh and Dwayne Lee had 12 points apiece while Chet Stachitas added 11. The Hawks also held a 32-21 edge in rebounding, led by eight from Ahmad Nivins.

SJU 47 - Penn 44: SJU pulled out a 47-44 win over Penn in a hard-fought game typical of the Philadelphia Big 5's 50-year history. Abdulai Jalloh's only field goal of the game with :25 to go proved to be the game-winner, while Rob Ferguson scored a game-high 18 points. SJU went more than 13 minutes without a field goal after a 3-pointer by Chet Stachitas with 15:41 left gave the Hawks a 30-25 lead. The Quakers responded with a 9-0 run over 4:13 to take a 34-30 lead with 10:34 to go. Ferguson, who scored 10 points in the first three minutes of the half, hit a 3-pointer at 1:32 to knot the score at 44-44. Jalloh was the only other Hawk in double figures with 10 points as SJU ran its Big 5 record to 3-0. With many former Big 5 players in attendance, the schools paid tribute to the anniversary by allowing the throwing of streamers onto the court after each team's first basket, a practice that had been banned by the NCAA since 1985.

Dayton 77 - SJU 69: Dayton used a strong second half to defeat the Hawks, 77-69. After a tight first half, the Flyers shot 55 percent in the second, going on a 15-5 run. After Dayton took a 60-50 lead at 7:48, the Hawks would not get within double digits until the final margin. Abdulai Jalloh had 20 points for SJU, which shot 43% in the game, but could only hit 6-of-21 from 3-point range. Dwayne Lee scored 13 points but the Hawks' starting backcourt had eight of the team's 12 turnovers. Chet Stachitas also added 13 for the Hawks, who saw their three-game winning streak come to an end.

SJU 82 - St. Bonaventure 51: Rob Ferguson scored a career-high 22 points as Saint Joseph's led wire-to-wire in an 82-51 win over St. Bonaventure. Abdulai Jalloh added 18 points and equaled a career-best with nine rebounds for the Hawks. SJU broke the game open midway through the first half with a 13-0 run that culminated in a Dwayne Lee 3-pointer with 4:05 to go before intermission, part of a 23-4 burst that gave the Hawks a 39-19 halftime lead. Ferguson shot 9-for-13 from the field while grabbing seven rebounds. In his first start, freshman center Alvin Mofunanya set a career-high with 13 points. SJU shot well in both halves, while forcing the Bonnies into 6-for-22 shooting and 12 turnovers in the first half.

#4 Villanova 71 - SJU 58: SJU couldn't sustain its play from the first 20 minutes and #4 Villanova came alive in the second half to win, 71-58, in front of a raucous sellout crowd at the Palestra to capture the Big 5 title. It was the fourth time in history that two 3-0 teams played for the City Series title. SJU played one of its best halves of the season, hitting 50 percent of its shots, holding the Wildcats to 30.4% shooting and owning a 34-22 edge at the break. In the second half, VU ran off 10 straight points to pull within 34-32. SJU made just one of its first 11 shots and turned the ball over four times during the first 15 possessions. The Wildcats took the lead for good, 39-37 at 13:57. Trailing by as many as 16 points, the Hawks cut the lead to 10 late, but 'Nova hit 5-of-6 free throws down the stretch to secure the win. Chet Stachitas had 19 points, while Abdulai Jalloh had 15 and Dwayne Lee 11.

#8 George Washington 64 - SJU 62: Rob Ferguson's 3-point attempt with :03 left missed and SJU's upset bid of #8 George Washington fell short, 64-62. Playing their second consecutive Top 10 opponent, the Hawks jumped out to an early lead, holding a 33-25 edge at halftime. Unfortunately for the Hawks, the start of the second half was also similar to the previous game. This time, GW went on a 20-0 run to take a 45-35 lead. SJU rebounded and went on an 8-0 run of its own to close to 47-45 on a jumper by Chet Stachitas. GW built the lead back up to 59-50 with 5:40 to play, but the Hawks would close to 59-58 at 2:50. The Hawks took the lead twice in the final two minutes, once on free throws by Dwayne Lee and again on a put-back by Dave Mallon with 40 seconds left. However, the eventual game-winner from Pops Mensah-Bonsu came at :23. The Hawks struggled from beyond the arc, making a season-low 1-for-22. SJU had four in double figures - Ferguson (14), Mallon (12), Stachitas (12), and Lee (11).

2005-06 GAME RECAPS

Temple 57 - SJU 44: The Hawks lost to Temple in a low-scoring affair, 57-44, to end their seven-game winning streak over the rival Owls. Saint Joseph's was plagued by 19 turnovers, which led to 21 Temple points. The Hawks' long-range shooting woes continued, as they went 6-for-26 in 3-point attempts. TU went on a 9-2 second-half run to build its lead to nine points and then led by as many as 15. Abdulai Jalloh came off the bench to score 11 points while Chet Stachitas added 10. Pat Calathes started in place of Jalloh and handed out four assists in the game. It was the lowest amount of points scored by a Hawk team under Phil Martelli since SJU had 42 against Temple on Feb. 17, 1998.

SJU 57 - Rhode Island 55: SJU pulled out a close one at URI, 57-55, using a balanced effort, with all five starters in double figures for the first time this season. Abdulai Jalloh hit a jumper at 4:01 to tie the score at 52. Rob Ferguson gave the Hawks the lead for good with a 3-pointer at 2:58. Jalloh scored another basket with 2:05, giving the Hawks a 57-54 lead. URI's last chance with :05 was off the mark. Ferguson and Dwayne Lee each scored 11 points while Jalloh, Chet Stachitas and Dave Mallon had 10 apiece. The Hawks shot 45.8 percent in the game, while forcing URI into a 28.6% effort in the second half.

SJU 64 - Fordham 58: Abdulai Jalloh scored 15 of his 23 points in the second half to lead the Hawks to a 64-58 victory over Fordham. Jalloh, who shot 6-for-9 in the game, scored seven points during an 11-0 run that lengthened a three-point lead into a 59-45 advantage with 5:19 left. With the game tied early in the second half, Chet Stachitas hit back-to-back 3-pointers to become the 44th player in team history to reach 1,000 points. Rob Ferguson had 13 points and Dwayne Lee added 10.

SJU 70 - Richmond 39: SJU's seniors went out on a winning note in their final Fieldhouse game, as the Hawks routed Richmond, 70-39. Holding a 28-20 half-time lead, SJU stormed out in the second half as Dwayne Lee hit back-to-back 3-pointers to ignite a 25-4 run that gave the Hawks an overwhelming 53-24 lead by the midway point of the half. The Hawks shot 56.5 percent in the second half and led by as many as 34 points. Lee and fellow senior Chet Stachitas scored 11 points each in a balanced effort that saw every player get into the game. Pat Calathes had eight points, six rebounds and six assists, while Abdulai Jalloh had a team-high seven rebounds.

SJU 68 - Xavier 58: SJU led wire-to-wire in a 68-58 road victory over Xavier. Dwayne Lee and Abdulai Jalloh scored 18 points apiece to pace the Hawks, combining to go 14-for-16 from the foul line. Saint Joseph's ran out to a 29-19 lead in the first half, but the Musketeers cut the lead to three at halftime. SJU then pushed the lead back to 10 on 3-pointers by Chet Stachitas and Lee. Xavier closed to within five in the final minute, but the Hawks were 7-for-8 from the charity stripe over that span to seal the win. Rob Ferguson finished with 12 points and seven rebounds, while Stachitas added 10. Jalloh also contributed six boards to the cause.

SJU 79 - Duquesne 63: Rob Ferguson made all seven of his shots and Pat Calathes scored a career-high 17 points to lead Saint Joseph's to a 79-63 win over Duquesne in the regular-season finale. Ferguson had 10 points in the first half, making four shots, including two 3-pointers. The Hawks led at the start and after Duquesne took a 19-16 lead at 12:02, SJU rattled off ten straight points to go up for good. Calathes made 6-for-10 from the field and grabbed a career-high eight rebounds. Dwayne Lee had 15 points and four assists while Abdulai Jalloh scored 14. SJU led by as many as 23 points in the second half en route to its fifth straight win.

SJU 67 - Dayton 55: Abdulai Jalloh scored 24 points, 18 in the second half, to lead the Hawks to a 67-55 victory over Dayton in the first round of the Atlantic 10 Championship. Dwayne Lee's 3-pointer five minutes into the game put SJU ahead to stay. The Flyers closed to within one at 42-41 with 12:02 remaining, but Jalloh scored the next five points to halt the comeback. The Hawks used solid defense to hold on to the lead, as they shot a mere 39.6% from the floor over the course of the game. Rob Ferguson scored 16 points and grabbed 7 rebounds. Chet Stachitas, playing in his 125th game as a Hawk, added 12. Jalloh led the squad in rebounding as well as scoring, tallying eight rebounds.

SJU 56 - Saint Louis 37: Saint Joseph's dominated from the get-go, eliminating Saint Louis from its first Atlantic 10 Championship with a 56-37 victory over the Billikens in the quarterfinals. SJU had more field goals (14) in the first half than Saint Louis had for the entire game (13). A Chet Stachitas 3-pointer sparked a 10-0 run that sent the Hawks to the locker room with a commanding 33-14 lead. Stachitas finished with 17 points and a career-high nine rebounds in his 126th game as a Hawk, which broke Jameer Nelson's career record. Rob Ferguson contributed 10 points, and Abdulai Jalloh added seven assists.

SJU 73 - Temple 59: Saint Joseph's advanced to its second straight Atlantic 10 Championship game with a 73-59 victory over crosstown rival Temple. Led by Chet Stachitas' 18 points, the Hawks jumped out early and were never really threatened by the Owls. Taking 10 of their first 11 shots from beyond the arc, and making four of them, the Hawks set the tone right away and confounded the vaunted matchup zone of Temple. The Hawks cruised into the break with a 32-

20 lead, and never led by less than nine the rest of the way. For the game, SJU shot 13-of-28 from 3-point territory, while holding Temple to a paltry 11.1% (2-18) from outside the arc. Abdulai Jalloh poured in 18 points to go with his eight rebounds, while Dwayne Lee and Rob Ferguson scored in double figures with 14 and 12, respectively. Lee had seven assists as well, as the Hawks won their eighth consecutive game.

Xavier 62 - SJU 61: Saint Joseph's had two chances to win in the final seconds, but the Hawks were unable to convert and fell 62-61 to Xavier in the Atlantic 10 Championship game. The Hawks came from behind to erase a 13-point first half deficit and trailed by three at halftime, 26-23. A 16-2 run had given Xavier a 20-7 lead, but the Hawks used a well-timed timeout to regroup. In the second half, SJU took its first lead since the early moments of the game when the Hawks went ahead 44-41 with 9:40 to play. Saint Joseph's extended its lead to double digits, 56-46, with 7:19 to go. However, the Musketeers used timely outside shooting to climb back into it, tying the game at 59 with just under two minutes remaining, setting up a wild finish. Xavier blocked five of SJU's final six shots, including two attempts by Dwayne Lee in the final two seconds. Chet Stachitas led the Hawks with 23 points, and Pat Calathes and Rob Ferguson scored 14 and 13, respectively. As a team, the Hawks were 24-for-27 from the free-throw line, but that wasn't enough to propel Saint Joseph's as it fell in the A-10 title game for the second consecutive year.

SJU 71 - Rutgers 62: Abdulai Jalloh scored 18 of his 23 points in the first half to lead Saint Joseph's past Rutgers, 71-62, in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. The Hawks took a 17-point lead early in the second half to put the Scarlet Knights away early. Jalloh scored the final 11 points of the first half for the Hawks, and added six rebounds for the game. Rob Ferguson tallied 17 points while Pat Calathes scored 12 of his own in the first game of SJU's sixth consecutive trip to the postseason.

Hofstra 77 - SJU 75 (OT): Saint Joseph's ended its 2005-06 men's basketball season with a heartbreaking 77-75 overtime defeat at the hands of Hofstra in the second round of the NIT. Trailing by five at halftime, the Hawks used a 13-3 run to pull within one in the second half. After a technical foul on Hofstra, Abdulai Jalloh (21 points, eight rebounds) tied the game at 50 from the foul line. Later in the second half, Pat Calathes scored seven of his 17 points to tie the game at 62-all. The Pride had a great opportunity to win the game in regulation, but missed the front end of a one-and-one with 13.6 seconds to go. SJU pulled down the rebound, and Jalloh was fouled behind the arc, coolly sinking all three free throws to send the game to overtime. In the extra frame, a Hofstra steal and layup put the Pride ahead 76-75 with 19.8 seconds left in the game. The Hawks received 14 points from Chet Stachitas and 12 from Rob Ferguson. Despite the loss, the Hawks won nine of their final 11 games to finish at 19-14.

The Hawks played in front of two enthusiastic Fieldhouse crowds in the NIT and won the first-round game vs. Rutgers.
