2010-11 REVIEW

With the youngest squad in the 16 years under coach Phil Martelli, the 2010-11 Saint Joseph's men's basketball team suffered growing pains, but also showed an abundance of talent and athleticism that should return the Hawks to the Atlantic 10's elite in future years.

The young Hawks made an exciting late-season run that further solidified the promise for success in the near future, as they won four of the last six games and fell just three points short of a berth in the Atlantic 10 championship game. Although SJU ended the year with an 11-22 record, the Hawks went 6-5 down the stretch.

Saint Joseph's opened the year with three freshmen in the starting lineup - Langston Galloway, C.J. Aiken and Daryus Quarles - which was Martelli's youngest starting five ever. After losses to Western Kentucky and Penn State, the Hawks ran off three straight wins in the Philly Hoop Group Classic, earning the title with a 76-70 victory over Rutgers at The Palestra. Carl Jones scored 21 points and Galloway had 20 to give a glimpse of what was to come from the backcourt duo.

The Hawks couldn't keep the run going through a challenging schedule in December as they lost six in a row, which included defeats to #12 Villanova, #22 Minnesota, despite 29 points from Jones, and at Jesuit foe Creighton. SJU would close out the calendar year with a win at Holy Cross and a home victory over Siena on New Year's Eve.

January was cold and unkind to the Hawks as they opened the A-10 schedule and went winless for the month, starting out conference play with an 0-7 record. That streak also included three straight losses at The Palestra to city teams Penn, La Salle and Temple.

February brought a new slate and although a loss to Richmond ran the winless streak to nine, the Hawks returned to Hagan Arena on February 5 for the first time since January 19, and scored a 67-64 win over Massachusetts behind 25 points from Galloway. SJU made it two in a row, defeating Fordham at the Izod Center in East Rutherford, N.J., for the program's 1,500th all-time victory. But the Hawks couldn't keep the winning streak going as 24th-ranked Xavier scored a decisive victory at Hagan Arena. The Hawks would suffer road losses to Temple and UMass before ending February with a home win over St. Bonaventure as Galloway and Jones combined for 47 points.

On "Senior Day" at Hagan Arena the Hawks fell to eventual A-10 champion Richmond and faced a must-win game at Charlotte in the regular season finale to earn a bid to the conference tournament. SJU responded with a thrilling 71-70 victory as Galloway tied his career-high with 27 points and hit the winning free throw with 4.1 seconds to go. It marked the 150th Atlantic 10 win in Martelli's career.

The Hawks had to travel to fifth-seeded George Washington for the A-10 opening round and scored a 71-59 overtime win to advance to the quarterfinals in Atlantic City. The 12th-seeded Hawks needed overtime again to upset fourth-seeded Duquesne, 93-90, and were paced by 28 points from Jones. The win was also Martelli's 300th career victory. SJU's exciting tournament run came to an end in the semifinals with the narrow 93-90 loss to ninth-seeded Dayton.

Jones and Galloway led the way for SJU as the duo accounted for 45 percent of the Hawks' scoring. Galloway, who earned A-10 Rookie of the Week honors five times during the season, was named to the conference's All-Rookie Team and was chosen as the Big 5 Rookie of the Year. Jones, who shared team MVP honors with Galloway, earned a spot on the All-Big 5 Second Team. Aiken was one of the top shot blockers in the nation (ranking third), led the A-10 and set the SJU freshman record for blocks with 117. Freshman Ronald Roberts earned a spot in the starting lineup late in the year and thrilled the Hawk faithful with his athleticism.

Ronald Roberts, a starter in 11 of the final 12 games, was named the team's Most Improved Player.

Game 4: November 23, 2010 - Arena at Harbor Yards - Bridgeport, Conn.

Philly Hoop Group Classic - SJU 60 - Fairfield 51

Langston Galloway had 15 points and C.J. Aiken added 13 points, eight rebounds and six blocks as Saint Joseph's fought off a six-point halftime deficit on the way to a 60-51 victory in the Philly Hoop Group Classic at Fairfield. Idris Hilliard (12) and Carl Jones (13) rounded out a quartet of double-figure scorers for SJU. Fairfield took the lead in the first half and stretched the advantage to as many as 11 points at 25-14. The Hawks scored the final five points of the period on a pair of free throws by Aiken and a three-pointer from Galloway, slashing the deficit to 25-19 at the break. The Hawks burst out of the gates in the second as Hilliard started with a jumper 39 seconds in to cut the margin to four before Galloway and Jones each turned steals into breakaways for a 25-25 tie just 83 seconds into the second period. Jones' layup capped off an 11-0 SJU run over 4:25 of game action spanning both halves. In a back-and-forth contest with no team leading by more than a field goal for much of the second half, the Stags nosed ahead, 45-44, with 6:11 remaining. Saint Joseph's took the lead for good on a layup by Aiken with 5:35 to go that put the Hawks on top, 46-45. SJU then held the Stags without a point until a free throw with just 58 seconds left. SJU sealed the victory with free throws and a layup by Jones with 17 seconds to go.

Game 5: November 26, 2010 - The Palestra Philly Hoop Group Classic - SJU 76 - Rutgers 60

Carl Jones had a career-high 21 points and freshman Langston Galloway had 20 as Saint Joseph's defeated Rutgers, 76-60, to win the Philly Hoop Group Classic at The Palestra. Galloway shot 7-for-8 from the field and handed out eight assists. Jones made 7-of-10 from the foul line while Idris Hilliard added 10 points. The Hawks led for most of the first half, but after trailing 22-21, SJU scored the next 11 straight points, keyed by five points each from Jones and Galloway, to take a 33-22 lead. Rutgers used a pair of three-pointers to close to within 34-28 at the half. Rutgers cut the Hawk lead to 38-35 early in the second half before Jones connected on a three-pointer and made a layup to build the Hawks' lead back to 43-35. A three from Galloway and a layup by Justin Crosgile gave SJU a 50-40 edge at 12:47, its biggest of the half. Back-to-back Rutgers baskets cut the deficit to 62-61 at 4:19, and Rutgers pulled within a point one more time, but again it was Jones who answered, with two free throws and a layup to give the Hawks a 68-63 edge at 2:58. A three-pointer by Charoy Bentley built the lead to 72-63 and the Hawks closed out the game with 4-of-5 foul shooting down the stretch. The game pitted Saint Joseph's head coach Phil Martelli against his son Jimmy, who is an assistant at Rutgers, as well as against his former assistant coach Mike Rice, who is the Scarlet Knights' head coach. It marked the first time that the elder Martelli coached against one of his sons in a regular-season game.

Game 6: December 1, 2010 - Daskalakis Center - Philadelphia, Pa. Drexel 62 - SJU 50

Drexel dominated the boards and defeated Saint Joseph's, 62-50, to end the Hawks' three-game winning streak. It was the first game between the city rivals played at Drexel's Daskalakis Center since the 1992-93 season. The Dragons held a commanding 46-23 edge in rebounding, and limited SJU to just 22 second-half points. Carl Jones was the lone Hawk in double figures with 20 points and he connected on SJU's only three-pointer of the night, as the visitors were just 1-for-6 behind the arc. Langston Galloway scored nine points for SJU. Leading 31-28 at halftime, Drexel scored the first five points of the half. With the home team leading 38-32 at 16:15, both teams went on scoring droughts, with Drexel not scoring until 12:30 to play and SJU going for five minutes without a basket until Ronald Roberts connected on a jumper. Drexel led by as much as 49-36 in the second half, and Jones singlehandedly tried to get the Hawks back in the game. The sophomore scored nine of the Hawks' next 12 points to pull SJU within, 55-48, with 3:52 remaining. But a Drexel layup built the Dragons' lead back to 58-48 and they closed out the win.

Saint Joseph's (3-3)

Game 7: December 3, 2010 - The Pavilion - Villanova, Pa. #12 Villanova 71 - SJU 60

Saint Joseph's late second-half rally wasn't enough as the Hawks fell to rival and 12th-ranked Villanova, 71-60, at The Pavilion in the Philadelphia Big 5 opener for both teams. Carl Jones led the Hawks with 19 points, and freshman C.J. Aiken blocked seven shots. Down by 20 points in the second half, the Hawks' Daryus Quarles and Charoy Bentley hit consecutive threes during a late 9-0 run that got the Hawks within 11 points, while a jumper by Langston Galloway pulled SJU to 69-60 with 40 seconds to play. But Villanova's Corey Stokes hit two free throws at :33 to provide the final double-digit margin. SJU came out strong in the first half and held the very early lead before Villanova went on a 6-0 run to take a 16-11 edge. Saint Joseph's would cut VU's lead to 20-18 on five consecutive points from Jones, but the Wildcats outscored the Hawks, 12-5, in the last five minutes of the period to take a 38-28 lead at the break. Villanova used another 12-5 run to start the second half, and within five minutes, held a commanding 50-33 lead. The Wildcats led by as much as 21 points, but SJU's young group refused to quit. Quarles scored 12 for the Hawks with Idris Hilliard adding 10 points.

Saint Joseph's (3-4, 0-1 Big 5)

Game 8: December 5, 2010 - Jadwin Gym - Princeton, N.J. Princeton 74 - SJU 65

Saint Joseph's used a spirited second-half effort, but couldn't overcome an 18-point half-time deficit, as the Hawks fell to Princeton, 74-65, at Jadwin Gym. Carl Jones scored a career-high 24 points in the loss, shooting 6-for-10 in the second half, as the Hawks attempted a comeback. Ronald Roberts had 10 points and seven rebounds. Princeton dominated from the start, jumping out to an 8-0 lead and shooting 5-of-9 from three-point range, to take a 30-12 lead by the 10-minute mark. The Tigers connected on 58.1 percent from the field and owned a 45-27 lead at halftime. The Hawks came out like a different team in the second half, and forced five Princeton turnovers while keeping the Tigers off the scoreboard for over five minutes. Trailing 47-34, Roberts would spark the Hawks with two dunks and a steal as SJU pulled within 52-42, on a dunk by C.J. Aiken. But back-to-back three-pointers and a layup built the Princeton lead back up to 60-46 with 7:40 remaining. SJU couldn't close to single digits but scored six points in the last two minutes to provide the final margin.

Game 10: December 11, 2010 - Qwest Center Omaha - Omaha, Neb. Creighton 82 - SJU 75

Creighton came back from a first-half deficit to score an 82-75 victory over Saint Joseph's, Carl Jones led the way for the Hawks with a team-high 17 points. The teams traded leads in the second half before the Bluejays took the 52-48 edge at 13:29. SJU's Justin Crosigile had a string of threes to pull the Hawks closer at 60-55. The Bluejays answered and Creighton took its biggest lead of the second half, 68-59, with 6:03 to play. SJU cut it to 78-72 and after a Creighton turnover, Jones was fouled on a three-point attempt and converted all three at 38.7 seconds to pull SJU within 78-75. But CU hit two free throws at 31.5 and the Hawks missed on their next possession. Despite a 30-18 SJU lead in the first half, Creighton closed out the half with a 20-6 run, to take a 38-36 halftime lead. Langston Galloway was the only other Hawk in double figures, scoring 13 points.

Game 11: December 21, 2010 - Agganis Arena - Boston, Mass. Boston University 85 - SJU 79

Boston University used a 27-6 run over a nine-minute stretch in the second half to earn an 85-79 win over Saint Joseph's at Agganis Arena. Langston Galloway paced the Hawks with 24 points, buoyed by a 6-of-8 performance from three-point range, while Carl Jones added 21 points and seven assists. Ronald Roberts also chipped in with 10 points in 14 minutes of action. SJU led by a point at the break and built a 12-point lead midway through the second stanza, but the Terriers clawed back over the final 10-plus minutes to emerge with the victory. After BU cut SJU's lead to 39-38 at halftime, Galloway and Jones came out of the tunnel on a mission, combining to score 14 of SJU's first 18 points in the second half and staking their team to a four-point advantage with 11:55 to go. Leading 57-53, the Hawks scored eight straight points to take their biggest lead of the game, 65-53, with 10:34 to play. BU countered with 10 consecutive points to cut it to 65-63 with 8:55 remaining, before finishing a 14-5 run to tie the score at 67-67 with 6:11 to play. The Terriers took their first lead of the half, 73-71, and would increase it to 80-71 on free throws. Five consecutive points from Jones cut the deficit to 80-76, but two free throws at :35 gave the Terriers the 82-76 lead. BU hit its free throws while Galloway added a three-pointer at :09 to set the final margin.

Game 12: December 28, 2010 - Hart Center - Worcester, Mass. SJU 65 - Holy Cross 54

Justin Crosigile scored 19 points in 25 minutes off the bench and C.J. Aiken added 10 points as Saint Joseph's defeated Holy Cross, 65-54, at the Hart Center. Crosigile connected on a career-high five three-pointers in the contest. The win snapped a six-game losing streak for the Hawks and marked the squad's first victory in the month of December. Saint Joseph's started out extremely cold, missing its first eight shots and scoring only two points in the first six minutes. But freshman Daryus Quarles broke the skid with a three-pointer at 14:36, and from there the Hawks would score eight straight points and take a 10-5 lead. Carl Jones heated up from the field and scored nine points in just over a minute to give the Hawks a 26-12 lead, their biggest of the half. SJU went into the locker room with a 31-23 lead. The Hawks opened it up midway through the second half and Holy Cross eventually cut it to 62-51, but SJU put it away from the foul line.

Saint Joseph's (4-8)

Carl Jones led the win over Siena scoring 17 points - he would go on to record double figures in all but three games on the season.

Game 13: December 31, 2010 - Hagan Arena SJU 58 - Siena 48

Carl Jones scored 17 points to lead four Hawks in double figures as Saint Joseph's held off Siena, 58-48, in a New Year's Eve game at Hagan Arena. It was SJU's second win in a row and just its first home game since December 8. Justin Crosigile added 11 points and Langston Galloway and C.J. Aiken each contributed 10 points. Aiken also grabbed nine rebounds and blocked four shots. The Hawks held a 27-23 lead at halftime, but saw Siena go on a quick 6-0 run to take a 34-33 lead with 14:37 to play. Saint Joseph's would outscore the Saints, 10-2, paced by five points from Galloway, to regain the lead, 43-36 at 11:08. A three-pointer by Siena pulled the visitors within 43-41 at 8:22 but Saint Joseph's answered with a 5-0 run, ending with a tip-in by Aiken, to give the Hawks a 48-41 edge. SJU converted 6-of-8 free throws in the final 37 seconds to preserve the win and committed a season-low five turnovers in the victory.

Game 14: January 5, 2011 - Hagan Arena Duquesne 75 - SJU 63

Duquesne built up a double-digit lead early in the game and stopped Saint Joseph's second-half rally to defeat the Hawks, 75-63, in the A-10 opener at Hagan Arena. Saint Joseph's was paced by Langston Galloway, who had 20 points, and Ronald Roberts, who notched career-highs of 13 points and 10 rebounds, to record the seasons' first double-double. Duquesne took control from the start and by the 13:50 mark, held an 18-8 lead. The Dukes forced the Hawks into 12 turnovers and a 9-for-24 shooting effort, building the lead up to 31-15 with 8:55 to play. DU held a 42-26 lead at intermission and then took its biggest lead of the game, 56-33 at 14:21. The Hawks would put together a 13-1 run to close the gap and pull within 57-46 at 6:56. But back-to-back three pointers increased Duquesne's margin to 63-48 with 5:50 remaining. Saint Joseph's cut the deficit to 11 points one more time, 72-61, on a tip-in by Galloway at 1:18, but ran out of time.

Game 15: January 8, 2011 - Hagan Arena George Washington 78 - SJU 71

George Washington placed five players in double figures to defeat Saint Joseph's, 78-71, at Hagan Arena. Carl Jones scored 23 points for the Hawks while C.J. Aiken notched 15 points and nine blocked shots. Leading basically the entire game, GW held off a few Saint Joseph's comeback attempts in the second half. Trailing 40-31, SJU eventually pulled to within 50-46. GW continued to hold its lead even though Aiken connected on a three with 7:24 to cut the SJU deficit to 58-56. But GW answered right back with a three-pointer and then a conventional three-point play to take a 63-56 edge at 5:48. The Hawks made one more run to close to 73-69, but GW would go on to convert 5-of-6 foul shots down the

Game 16: January 12, 2011 - UD Arena
Dayton 65 - SJU 59

Dayton edged Saint Joseph's, 65-59, at UD Arena in a tight contest. UD's Chris Wright hit a jumper at 1:47 to give Dayton a 62-57 lead, but C.J. Aiken's dunk pulled the Hawks to within 62-59. SIU missed on a three-pointer with 59 seconds to go and then forced a Dayton turnover at 17.7 seconds. But on the Hawks' next possession, Justin Crosbie missed a three-pointer at :06. Coming out of a timeout, SIU was whistled for a technical foul for six men on the court, and Dayton's Chris Johnson made one free throw at :04. SIU then fouled again and Josh Parker connected on a pair of free throws with three seconds to go to provide the final margin. Saint Joseph's had erased a 12-point Dayton lead in the first half, with a 13-1 run that tied the score at 28-28 with 33.5 seconds to play. Langston Galloway hit a three-pointer with 1.9 seconds left to give the Hawks their first lead of the game, 33-31. Dayton attempted one last shot at 1.9 seconds, but the inbound pass went untouched. On the final play of the half, Aiken caught the inbound from Galloway and hit a fallaway jumper at the buzzer to give SIU a 35-31 lead at intermission. Carl Jones had 19 points and Aiken finished with 11 points for SIU to go along with three blocks.

Game 17: January 15, 2011 - Chaifetz Arena
Saint Louis 67 - SJU 51

Saint Louis scored a 7-51 win over Saint Joseph's at Chaifetz Arena as both teams entered the game seeking their first A-10 wins of the year. Carl Jones had 10 points for the Hawks. Saint Louis took the lead early on and owned a 29-19 edge at halftime. The Billikens maintained a double-digit lead throughout the second half, with the biggest margin being 15 points. With SLU leading 62-47, the Hawks scored four straight, and a jumper by C.J. Aiken pulled SIJ within 62-51 with over three minutes to play. But SIJ would not get any closer and the final score was the Billikens' largest margin of the game. Saint Joseph's shot 46.4 percent in the second half, while Saint Louis hit just 32 percent in that period. The Billikens held an advantage at the foul line, making 21-of-29 while the Hawks were just 7-for-12. Jones was the only Hawk in double figures but Aiken had nine points and Ronald Roberts had seven rebounds for SIJ.

Game 18: January 19, 2011 - Hagan Arena
Rhode Island 64 - SJU 59

Rhode Island held off Saint Joseph's, 64-59, at Hagan Arena. Carl Jones had 25 points, with 17 in the first half, while Idris Hilliard had his first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. C.J. Aiken added 12 points and seven blocked shots. SJU trailed for most of the second half, but appeared to make a game-changing spurt with over six minutes to go. Aiken's block triggered a fast break ending in a three-pointer from Jones. Then Jones stole the ball on URI's next possession and laid it in as SJU closed to 54-50. The Rams called timeout and came back with four straight points to take a 58-50 lead. A jumper by Hilliard at 2:08 pulled SJU within 61-57, but on the Hawks' possession with under a minute to play, Jones' long three-pointer was off the mark. URI converted a layup with 26 seconds to play to preserve the win. The Hawks led at halftime, 37-35.

Game 21: January 29, 2011 - The Palestra Temple 72 - SJU 54

Scottie Randall scored 17 points to lead Temple to a 72-54 win over Saint Joseph's at The Palestra. Carl Jones tallied 19 points for the Hawks while Ronald Roberts scored a career-high 17 points off the bench on 8-for-11 shooting. Holding an 11-10 lead, Temple broke it open with a 12-0 run, taking a 23-10 lead on a three-pointer by Randall with 7:28 to play in the first half. The Owls maintained the double-digit advantage the rest of the half, owning a 32-22 lead at the intermission. The second half was more of the same as Temple started the period with a 9-2 run to move ahead, 41-24. The Hawks used a 9-2 run of their own, with threes from Hilliard and Daryus Quarles, and a three-point play by Roberts, to close to 43-33, but Temple answered that with a quick 9-0 spurt to take a 52-33 lead with 13:23 remaining. The Hawks fell behind by 20 points when TU gained a 68-48 advantage with 5:42 remaining.

Game 22: February 2, 2011 - Robins Center - Richmond, Va. Richmond 62 - SJU 52

Carl Jones led the way with 21 points and Langston Galloway added 11 and nine rebounds, but Saint Joseph's fell to Richmond, 62-52, at the Robins Center. Saint Joseph's took a brief 10-9 lead but Richmond would outscore SJU 19-8 over the next eight minutes, building a 12-point lead at 28-16 with 6:50 remaining in the half. A dunk by C.J. Aiken started a 7-1 spurt that pulled the Hawks within six at 29-23 before back-to-back three-pointers by UR gave the home team a 34-26 lead at the break. The Hawks opened the second half with a 10-5 run, paced by six consecutive points from Jones. Ronald Roberts dunked in a Jones miss at 15:26 to pull the Hawks within three, 39-36. After a pair of Richmond free throws, Galloway hit a three-pointer with 14:30 left to close the Hawks within two, but another Richmond three kicked off a 10-2 Spider run. UR upped its lead to 57-47 with 3:26 remaining and converted 5-of-6 free throws down the stretch.

Senior Charoy Bentley made his first start in place of the injured Carl Jones, and helped the Hawks score a 67-64 win over UMass.

Game 23: February 5, 2011 - Hagan Arena SJU 67 - Massachusetts 64

Langston Galloway scored a career-high 25 points to lead Saint Joseph's to a 67-64 win over Massachusetts at Hagan Arena, ending a nine-game losing streak and marking the first conference win of the year. The Hawks did it without leading scorer Carl Jones, who was sidelined with a sprained ankle. Senior Charoy Bentley replaced Jones and scored five points and went without a turnover in 32 minutes, while SJU had a balanced attack with all eight players notching at least one point. Galloway, who shot 8-for-12 from the field, hit a three with eight minutes left to give SJU its biggest lead of the game, 50-37. But UMass fought back and went on a 13-2 run to cut the Hawks' lead to 52-50. A pair of free throws gave SJU a cushion, but the Minutemen came within 57-56 with 3:21 remaining. Each time the Hawks upped their lead to four points, UMass would answer with another three, closing to within 65-64 at :18. Idris Hilliard helped seal it for the Hawks with four free throws in the final 27 seconds. Daryus Quarles scored 11 for the Hawks.

Game 24: February 13, 2011 - Izod Center - E. Rutherford, N.J. SJU 76 - Fordham 70

Saint Joseph's battled back from a 16-point second-half deficit to earn a 76-70 win over Fordham at the Izod Center. Langston Galloway tied his career-high with 25 points and Carl Jones added 15 as the Hawks posted the program's 1,500th victory. Phil Martelli also reached a pair of personal milestones, as he coached both his 500th career game and his 250th Atlantic 10 game. SJU trailed 49-33 before a 24-6 surge over the next eight-plus minutes gave the Hawks their first lead of the day. Jones converted a pair of free throws and a three to give SJU its first lead of the game, 57-55, with 8:44 to go. SJU led 65-58 with 5:20 remaining in the game and then by as much as nine. The Rams cut the deficit to 69-66 at 1:48, but would not get any closer. Fordham held a 43-31 edge at halftime. SJU heated up at the right time, hitting 7-of-11 threes in the second half to charge past the Rams for the largest deficit overcome by the Hawks. while Bentley had a career-high 14 points and Ronald Roberts had a personal-best 11 rebounds.

Game 25: February 16, 2011 - Hagan Arena #24 Xavier 74 - SJU 54

Mark Lyons had 24 points on 10-for-14 shooting to lead 24th-ranked Xavier to a 74-54 win over Saint Joseph's at Hagan Arena. Idris Hilliard led SJU with 13 points and Langston Galloway had 11. Saint Joseph's started out strong and with Hilliard scoring 10 points in the first 11 minutes, the Hawks led by as many as five points. But the final four minutes would change the game as Xavier outscored the Hawks, 13-2, during that span to take a 34-27 lead at halftime. Xavier then took a 31-25 lead and Tu Holloway scored his only points of the half when he converted three free throws with a second remaining. Xavier built up a 13-point lead, 40-27, in the first few minutes of the second half. The Hawks came as close as 45-37 at 13:31, but the Musketeers would score six straight to own a 51-37 lead with 10:14 to play. Xavier never let the lead get smaller than 16 points.

Game 26: February 20, 2011 - Liacouras Center - Philadelphia, Pa. #23 Temple 66 - SJU 52

Ramone Moore scored 17 points to lead #23 Temple to a 66-52 win over Saint Joseph's in an Atlantic 10 and Big 5 game at the Liacouras Center. Langston Galloway had 17 points to lead the Hawks while Carl Jones added 11. After Temple seemed to break it open early in the second half with a 44-28 lead, the Hawks made their move and cut it to 48-40 on a three-pointer by Jones with 10 minutes to go. But Temple would use an 8-2 run to quickly regain the double-digit lead, 56-42 and go on to lead by as much as 18 points. SJU held a very early lead in the game, but an 11-0 Temple run gave the home team a 20-11 lead at 10:24 of the first half. Saint Joseph's countered with a 7-0 run, which included a three-pointer by Charoy Bentley, to pull within 20-18 at 7:29. But Temple ended the half with an 8-2 run to hold a 35-23 edge at halftime.

Game 27: February 23, 2011 - Mullins Center - Amherst, Mass. Massachusetts 69 - SJU 51

Idris Hilliard paced the Hawks with 10 points but Saint Joseph's couldn't overcome an early deficit and fell to Massachusetts, 69-51 at the Mullins Center. Saint Joseph's started the game with its biggest scoring drought of the year. The Hawks scored three points on free throws but did not convert their first field goal until a short jumper by Hilliard at 8:28 broke a string of 13 missed shots. By then, Massachusetts had built up a 20-6 lead. A three-pointer at 3:06 gave the Minutemen a 29-12 lead and by halftime, UMass held a 34-15 lead. It was the season's lowest point total in a half for the Hawks, with the previous low being 19 at Penn State. SJU shot just 4-for-23 in the half, and 1-for-13 from three-point range, while UMass shot 52 percent from the field. With UMass leading 50-25, the Hawks held the Minutemen without a point for over six minutes. During that time the Hawks ran off 10 straight points, with five from Hilliard, to cut it to 50-35, but UMass eventually built its lead back to 20, at 55-35.

Game 28: February 26, 2011 - Hagan Arena SJU 79 - St. Bonaventure 65

Langston Galloway scored a career-high 27 points and Carl Jones tallied 20 to lead Saint Joseph's to a 79-65 win over St. Bonaventure for its largest winning margin of the year. C.J. Aiken scored a career-high 14 points on 5-for-7 shooting and Jones converted 10-for-13 from the foul line while adding six assists. Charoy Bentley handed out a career-high six assists in 15 minutes off the bench. The Hawks turned in their best shooting performance of the season, hitting 61.5 percent from the field and 64.7 percent from three-point range. SJU trailed for part of the period as SBU's Andrew Nicholson scored 16 first-half points. But the Hawks scored the final six points of the half, ending with a three-point play by Aiken to take a 38-34 lead into the lockerroom. The Hawks opened the second half with a 13-4 run, paced by seven points from Jones, to build up a 51-38 lead. An 11-4 run pulled the Bonnies within 56-52, but Jones hit a three-pointer at 6:19 to give the Hawks a seven-point cushion. Galloway hit 6-of-6 free throws to secure the victory.

Game 29: March 2, 2011 - Hagan Arena Richmond 69 - SJU 54

Kevin Anderson scored 20 of his game-high 22 points in the second half as Richmond earned a 69-54 victory over Saint Joseph's on "Senior Night." SJU was led by Carl Jones with 18 points and Ronald Roberts with 10. The Hawks' seniors, Idris Hilliard and Charoy Bentley, were honored prior to the game and Hilliard scored eight points and grabbed seven rebounds in his final game at Hagan Arena. After shooting just 29 percent in the first half, Richmond hit 55 percent of its shots in the second to pull away from the Hawks. Leading 40-39 with just over 10 minutes to play, the Spiders broke it open with a 12-1 run to take a 52-40 lead and then their biggest lead of the game, 69-52, with 1:49 remaining. Neither team would lead by more than three points in the low-scoring first half, with Richmond holding a 20-19 edge at intermission.

Game 30: March 5, 2011 - Halton Arena - Charlotte, N.C.

SJU 71 - Charlotte 70

Langston Galloway tied his career-high with 27 points and hit a free throw with 4.1 seconds to play to lift Saint Joseph's to a 71-70 win over Charlotte in the regular-season finale at Halton Arena. The victory gave SJU the final spot in the A-10 Tournament. The Hawks shot a blistering 11-for-19 from 3-point range in the victory. Galloway went 8-for-11 from the field and a career-best 6-for-7 from 3-point range while Carl Jones scored 19 points and Idris Hilliard added 10 points. With SJU leading, 70-67, Charlotte's Derrio Green connected on a baseline three pointer with 10.3 seconds to go to knot the game at 70. On SJU's possession, Galloway drove to the hoop and was fouled with 4.1 seconds remaining. He made the first to provide the winning point, and although he missed the second, Charlotte could only get off a desperation shot from beyond halfcourt. When the score was tied for the sixth time in the second half, 64-64, Galloway hit the shot of the game. He made a 3-pointer from near the Hawks' bench, was knocked to the ground, and made the ensuing free throw to give the Hawks a 68-64 lead with 1:20 remaining. Charlotte cut it to 69-67 on free throws but Jones built SJU's lead back up to 70-67 with a free throw at :32, thus setting the stage for the final seconds. Both teams were playing to extend their season in a win-or-go-home scenario. The squads traded leads and were tied twice in the first half. Charlotte held a 33-28 lead on a layup with 2:37 to go, but SJU closed out the half with seven straight points, ending with a three-pointer by Galloway at the buzzer to give the Hawks a 35-33 halftime lead.

Game 31: March 8, 2011 - Smith Center - Washington, D.C.

Atlantic 10 Opening Round

(12) SJU 71 - (5) George Washington 59 (OT)

Saint Joseph's scored the first 12 points of overtime as the 12th-seeded Hawks upset fifth-seeded George Washington, 71-59, in the 2011 Atlantic 10 Opening Round at the Smith Center. Langston Galloway led the way with 15 points. Saint Joseph's only attempted two field goals in overtime, but shot 18-of-20 from the charity stripe to salt away the win. C.J. Aiken was also 6-for-6 from the line in overtime on his way to 11 points to go with his five blocks. Also in double figures for SJU were Carl Jones with 12 and Idris Hilliard and Ronald Roberts with 10 each. The Hawks never trailed, scoring the first five points of the game en route to building up an 11-4 advantage. Daryus Quarles connected on a baseline three-pointer at the buzzer as the Hawks ran off the court with their biggest lead of the half, 31-20, at the break. Saint Joseph's kept up its 50-percent shooting through the first 10 minutes of the second half, taking its biggest lead, 43-29, ith 11:19 to go. GW found its shooting stroke and eventually cut the margin to 47-45, but Galloway hit a fadeaway jumper to restore the four-point cushion. The Colonials tied the score for the first time since the opening tip on a pair of free throws with 59 seconds left. Inbounding with 37.2 seconds to go and the score 49-49, the Hawks committed a shot clock violation. With a chance to win, GW missed two shots on its last possession and Todd O'Brien grabbed the defensive rebound as time expired to send the game into overtime. In overtime, Aiken sank a pair of free throws 20 seconds into the period that gave SJU a lead it would not relinquish. After layups by Hilliard and Jones, Galloway swished six straight free throws to put SJU on top, 61-49, before Tony Taylor hit a three with 1:27 to go to get the Colonials on the board in the OT. A pair of free throws by Jones pushed the lead back to double digits, where it would remain for the rest of the game. For the overtime, the Hawks were 2-of-2 from the field and 18-of-20 from the line while GW shot just 4-of-15 from the floor, including 2-of-11 from outside the arc. The Hawks shot 52.3 percent (23-of-44) for the game compared to just 35.7 percent (20-of-56) for GW.
