ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 - the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

The 14 member institutions of the A-10 are united and strengthened by their diversity. Each is extraordinary in its educational mission, whether of a Catholic faith, a private university or a land grant institution. The varied pursuits of each member prove that there are many threads that weave the fabric for a great conference.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of nearly 74 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this year: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions, in conjunction with Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade, have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation a successful one. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized 1,297 student-athletes in the Fall 2010, while 1,329 were named to the Spring 2011 Honor Roll.

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors one student-athlete per sport as the A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. Moreover, the Atlantic 10 provides four postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes.

The Atlantic 10 has 56 of the 909 Division I sports teams being honored with public recognition awards for their latest multi-year Academic Progress Rate scores. Twelve A-10 institutions had at least one program recognized, while 11 of those 12 schools had multiple teams garner distinction. In addition, all 21 sports sponsored by the conference were represented by at least one A-10 program. Among the 31 Division I conferences, the Atlantic 10 ranked fifth behind the Ivy Group (135), the Patriot League (82), the Big East (77) and the ACC (61).

In 2010-11, the Atlantic 10 also announced that the A-10 Council of Presidents adopted a five-year Strategic Initiative Plan, comprised of four emphasis areas, including: 1) Conference Membership; 2) Student-Athlete Experience; 3) Competitive Operating Standards; 4) Conference Brand, Equity, and Revenue Resources. With the adoption of the Strategic Initiative Plan serving as the foundation for the future, the Atlantic 10 Conference is committed to providing quality competition while further strengthening its academic and athletic integrity as a premier Division I conference in the nation.

Jesuit Basketball Spotlight

The Jesuit Basketball Spotlight project, which is in its fourth year, highlights games between men's and women's teams from the 28 Jesuit colleges and universities across the United States. Each of the 28 is dedicated to strong academics and teaching women and men to serve others and live a faith that does justice.

Jesuit schools on Saint Joseph's schedule this year are: Scranton (exhibition game), Creighton, Fordham, Xavier and Saint Louis.

The Spotlight project includes awareness announcements during these designated games and during gamecasts on radio and television, and other awareness opportunities. Jesuit, Catholic colleges and universities in the United States have more than 200,000 students currently enrolled and more than 1.7 million living alumni. The Jesuit educational mission began in Europe approximately 500 years ago.

SAINT JOSEPH'S SPORTS NETWORK

The Saint Joseph's Sports Network (SJSN) marks its 21st year of operation in 2011-12. Since its beginnings in 1990, SJSN's coverage of Hawk athletics has grown and included Phil Martelli's HawkTalk radio program and the nationally-renowned HawkTalk television show, which ran for 15 years.

Saint Joseph's men's basketball will have a new radio home beginning in 2011-12, as every game will be broadcast on one of the top sports radio stations in the nation, SportsRadio 610 WIP. This marks the most comprehensive radio package for Hawk basketball since the 2005-06 season. The station will also be the home for Phil Martelli's HawkTalk radio show, which will air on Monday evenings from January to March.

Hawk fans everywhere will be able to hear the broadcast of every game through audio streaming at the Hawks' official athletics site, www.SJUHawks.com, which is provided free of charge through Stretch Internet. (Broadcast schedule on page 2)

Matt Martucci

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Matt Martucci is in his third season as the Hawks' play-by-play announcer. He has been with the Saint Joseph's Sports Network since 2006 and has also served as the announcer for women's basketball game and baseball broadcasts over the internet.

He has worked with 97.5 The Fanatic since March 2011 as the morning update anchor during ESPN's Mike and Mike in the Morning.

A 2006 graduate of Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Communications, he was the director of broadcasting/account executive for independent league baseball team Atlantic City Surf for two seasons. Martucci has broadcast college basketball and football for Lincoln University, Lock Haven University and Syracuse University, in addition to high school football in Williamsport, Pa.

Martucci began his broadcasting career with WAER at Syracuse University, and has also worked with ESPN Radio 1450 in Atlantic City.

A native of Brodheadsville, Pa., he is currently pursuing his master's in business administration from Saint Joseph's.

He correctly forecast 64 out of 65 NCAA Tournament teams last season and has covered over 800 Hawk games in his career.

In 1995 and 2004, Lunardi received the William J. Bennett Award for dedication and loyalty to the SJU men's basketball program. Lunardi and his wife, Pam, a 1984 SJU graduate, reside in Drexel Hill, Pa., with their daughters, Emily and Elizabeth.

Phil Martelli's HawkTalk TV Show

For 15 seasons, Phil Martelli hosted the most unique coach's show in the nation with HawkTalk, which was televised in Philadelphia on Comcast SportsNet. The unscripted half-hour show provided a different twist on the traditional coach's show, with a "Tonight Show" format, putting the emphasis on jokes and lighthearted interviews. In 2001, The Sporting News called it the "nation's best coach's show."

Over the years, the guests ranged from Saint Joseph's students to Martelli family members to sports celebrities and politicians. Former Pennsylvania governor Ed Rendell was among the high-profile guests on HawkTalk along with former Philadelphia Eagles player Jon Runyan, author and Washington Post columnist John Feinstein, SJU greats Jack Ramsay and Jameer Nelson, former Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Mitch Williams, Philadelphia Flyers great Bernie Parent and SJU alum Vince Papale, whose story was told in the 2006 major motion picture Invincible.

In 2011-12, HawkTalk will be broadcast as part of Hawks' All-Access on SJUHawks.com. This internet version of the show will provide the opportunity for more SJU fans from around the world to view the show.

Why S-a-i-n-t Joseph's University?

The corporate title "S-a-i-n-t" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the public title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts.

The vast majority of academic and government publications have referred to Saint Joseph's University since at least 1986, as have most campus references with the exception of athletics. However, university-wide "image campaign" revealed the need to clarify this policy both internally and externally.

According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them – Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia – is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of Saint Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

Style information for print, electronic and digital media is available. It includes accepted abbreviations of the corporate name (e.g., "SJU" or "St. Joe's" in headlines or certain informal references) as well as prohibited usages (e.g., partial abbreviations such as "St. Joseph's" or "Saint Joe's").

Please direct any questions to the Office of University Communications at (610) 660-1222.
