2008 Tournament

The Hawks made their return to the NCAA Tournament, becoming just one of six non-BCS schools to earn an at-large bid. Seniors Pat Calathes and Rob Ferguson led a squad which went 21-12 during the regular season, had two wins over nationally-ranked Xavier and reached the Atlantic 10 title game for the third time in four years. The Hawks were seeded 11th, but fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

HAWKS IN THE NBA – COACHES

Coaching Dynasty

The Saint Joseph's coaching connection is an impressive one. Seven Saint Joseph's University graduates have gone on to head coaching positions in the NBA. Jim O'Brien (SJU '74) who coached the Indiana Pacers until 2011, is the most recent one. SJU is tied with Illinois for second on the list of universities with alumni that have served as head coaches in the NBA. Indiana University leads with 11 graduates that have coached in the league.

Mike Bantom is one of five Hawks to be chosen in the first round of the NBA Draft. Currently the NBA's senior vice president for player development, he was drafted by Phoenix but eventually played for the Philadelphia 76ers.

PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 ... A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administrations at the five major universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at The Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For over 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 was named the city's "Best Sports Tradition" by the Philadelphia Daily News.

In a city that is passionate about its sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,722 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra...it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series...it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business...it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when he gets thrown into his first City Series game...it's student-athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

The Big 5 – only in Philadelphia.

"THE PERFECT SEASON"

Nearly every day was "media day" for the Saint Joseph's Hawks in 2003-04 as the season of a lifetime was well-documented nationally. People from coast to coast could sense there was something special about the team and the Hawks were besieged everywhere by autograph seekers and well-wishers. A game with SJU became the hottest ticket in town as the Hawks sold out seven of their last eight road games. Amidst all the hoopla, the Hawks never lost their focus and gave the University and college basketball a memorable season. The Hawks went 27-0 and finished the season with a 30-2 record, while earning a number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament and reaching the NCAA Elite Eight.

There's a buzz at St. Joe's

Small campus in Philadelphia in a frenzy over their Hawks

YOSHIE BURNETT
PHILADELPHIA — As two students walked through St. Joseph's wind-swept campus the other day, he turned to the other with a nagging question. Was it something about whether Jameer Nelson would be able to break down Wake Forest's perimeter defense off the dribble one Thursday? Was it about the Hawks' ilk of a dominant inside player? Did the Hawks' complain about the way college basketball experts have looked down their noses at the Atlantic 10? Not exactly. "They speak Mandarin in Taiwan?" the student wondered. Okay, so maybe everyone on Hawk Hill isn't talking basketball. But even those who find basketball to be more like Chinese have been caught up in the excitement of the Little School That Might, the university of 3,600 full-time undergraduates that has hopes of a national title. "We've had some great years, a great talking about it. You like your campus to be talking about it" all the time. Whatever the "it" is, it happens to now be men's basketball, and it's wonderful to see. "People that don't even follow basketball — faculty and staff who aren't into this — walk by and say, 'Isn't this wonderful?'" Everyone but the two Far Eastern language enthusiasts, it seems, is caught up in the frenzy, especially with St. Joe's game against Wake Forest at Continental Airlines Arena last in five days. "The Hawks
