2009 PARADISE JAM

November 20-23
University of the Virgin Islands
UVI Sports and Fitness Center
St. Thomas, Virgin Islands

For the second consecutive year, Saint Joseph's will participate in a high level tournament held in a tropical setting. Following last year's appearance in the EA Sports Maui Invitational, the Hawks will play in the 2009 U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam, held in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

Beginning in 2000, many of the nation's finest men's and women's teams have converged on St. Thomas to gain excellent early season competition in an exotic island setting.

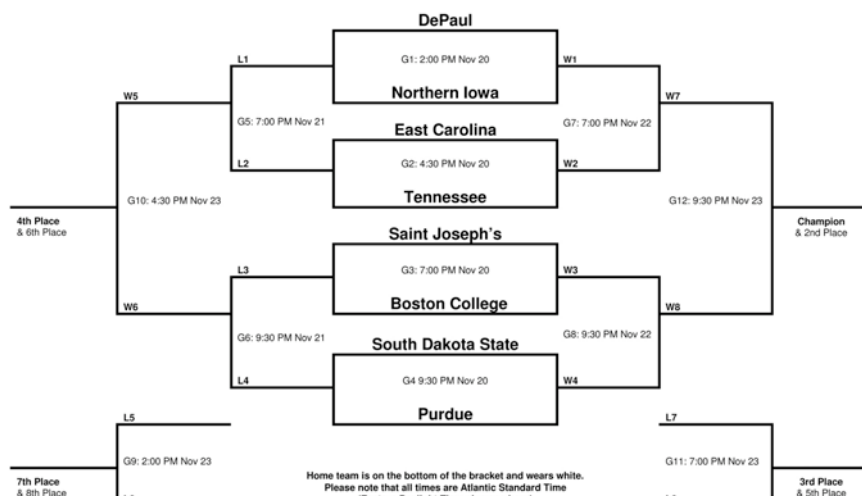

Since 2001, the tournament has been played at the 4,000-seat UVI Sports and Fitness Center. The first year of the tournament was played at Ivanna Eudora Kean High School, in anticipation of the completion of the state-of-the-art UVI facility in 2001. In October of 2007, a five-year contract extension was inked between Basketball Travelers, Inc., and the University of the Virgin Islands, ensuring the future of the Paradise Jam tournament in St. Thomas through 2013.

Basketball Travelers, Inc. has worked with Fox Sports since 2004 to televise multiple Paradise Jam tournament games annually, both men's and women's. This year's semifinals and consolation games will be televised on Fox College Sports and Fox Sports Net, with the championship to be seen on Fox Sports Net.

Saint Joseph's will open the tournament facing Boston College on November 20, and will play a total of three games in the tournament. The rest of the field is comprised of DePaul, East Carolina, Northern Iowa, Purdue, South Dakota State and Tennessee.

PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 ... A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administrations at the five major universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at The Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For over 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out fictional character Rocky Balboa to be named the city's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News.

In a city that is passionate about its sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,722 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra...it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series...it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business...it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when he gets thrown into his first City Series game...it's student-athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

The Big 5 – only in Philadelphia.
