2014-15 PREVIEW

Coming off of one of the most successful seasons in school history, the Saint Joseph's men's basketball team will have a newer and younger look, but still retain key pieces from the squad that captured the 2014 Atlantic 10 Championship and returned to the NCAA Tournament.

Phil Martelli now entering his 20th season as the head coach of the Hawks, is faced with the challenge of retooling after graduating a core group — Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts, Jr., and Halil Kanacevic — that scored nearly 59 percent of the squad's points and pulled in 56 percent of its rebounds. The trio each earned All-Conference honors, and coupled with point guard Chris Wilson and Atlantic 10 Co-Rookie of the Year DeAndre' Bembry, gave Saint Joseph's a balanced, cohesive and resilient group that put together a memorable year for the program.

"You can't replace those guys, but basically you create a new team, and their legacy is how the returning guys pick up the mantle and run with it," said Martelli, who is SJU's all-time leader in career victories with 362. "Those guys were not only all-league players, but they were Hawks in the purest sense of the word. So you can't talk about replacing them – you are now in the process of creating a new team and a new chapter in Saint Joseph's history."

DeAndre' Bembry

As the lone returning starters, Wilson and Bembry comprise this year's core and will be called on to provide leadership to the young group. Also back from the championship team are Evan Maschmeyer, Isaiah Miles, Javon Baumann, and Brendan Casper.

Martelli feels that the championship experience will undoubtedly benefit the Hawks who are returning for the 2014-15 campaign.

"When given the opportunity to focus on basketball and be in a locker room where trust and respect was so prevalent I expect that these guys will take that forward. I don't, and will not accept, anybody being complacent," said the coach. "Take the joy that we experienced, not just the public joy of winning the championship, but the joy that they experienced in the locker rooms at George Mason, at Rhode Island, and so on, when it was only them. I expect that they will take that and embrace their time here, whether it's four years or one year."

Last season's championship squad was built on incredible team chemistry, fostered early on during the team's preseason trip to Italy. Without the benefit of an offseason excursion this year, Martelli and his staff will look for alternatives when it comes to building chemistry with the new squad.

"Sure, you have to rebuild that chemistry. Every team is its own entity," Martelli said. "We won't have the advantage of a trip, which paid huge dividends, but we are going to come up with other ways, more creative ways, to bond the group as tightly as they can be bonded.

"But it comes back to the individual," he continued. "Guys have to want to be a part of it, and certainly via the 'eyeball test,' I can already tell that the young guys want to be a part of it."

Those younger players – particularly freshmen James Demery, Markell Lodge, Shavar Newkirk, and Obi Romeo – will certainly get the chance to be a part of it, too.

"This is what college basketball is about – players seizing an opportunity. And what we need is for them to seize that opportunity," Martelli said. "There is playing time to be had, shots to be taken, shots to be made, and academic progress to be made. The guys that we have are quality people, whether it's the incoming freshmen or guys that didn't play much [last season]. It's been explained very clearly to them what steps they need to take individually so that collectively we can make a step forward."

Ultimately, Martelli will send a young lineup out onto the court every night, but at the same time, it is one he is confident can be successful. "Character is going to be a real plus for this team," he said. "I think our overall athletic ability will allow for a different style of play, and I think there is a certain swagger that can be associated with being the defending champions. I think those are all pluses. The question marks or concerns are the outside shooting, scoring the ball in general, and the true individual growth, so you're getting your opportunities on the floor because you earned them."

Leading the way will be Wilson and Bembry. Wilson averaged a career-high 9.1 points and 2.7 assists per game as a junior, and scored double figures in 14 games. He was a co-recipient of the Hawks' Most Improved Player award and SJU will look for continued improvement from the senior.

"Chris has to follow along the lines of what seniors do here; he's got to follow in that tradition," Martelli said of his point guard. "He continues to be such a positive representative of his family name and of Saint Joseph's basketball throughout our campus. He never cheats in practice, and he has to pass on to the younger players how we practice, so we're prepared for every situation."

Bembry made a tremendous impact on the senior-dominated squad and exhibited a maturity unusual for a freshman. He was named the Atlantic 10 Co-Rookie of the Year and the Big 5 Rookie of the Year after averaging 12.1 points per game. And if the Hawks are to be successful in 2014-15, Martelli knows Bembry will need to be a big part of it. Bembry knows it as well.

"For anybody in college basketball that wants to be considered an elite player, it is the jump between freshman year and sophomore year that is the biggest," the head coach explained. "I want him to continue to carry himself with a swagger. He never looked out of place as a freshman, and I expect him to now move into the tier of elite players in the league and handle his business, whether it be in the weight room, on the practice floor, in a non-conference game, or a big Atlantic 10 game."

"There is a lot of responsibility that is going to be given to him, and he is more than capable of handling the acclaim and accolades," Martelli continued. "The thing that I like is that since last season, he has not backed off from accepting the responsibility and the challenge of being one of the best players in the league."

Another player who will add experience is junior Aaron Brown, who sat out last season after transferring from West Virginia. Brown will be called on to contribute to this year's squad in a number of ways.

2014-15 PREVIEW

"Aaron was a great teammate last year. He's been through the ups and the downs of college basketball and he is going to be a position-less player for us," Martelli said. "There are going to be times when we play smaller this year and we're counting on him having a little bit of that 'desperado' that a transfer has. This is it now for him. You have to drive to get everything that college basketball can give to you. He experienced that last year but really he was on the outside looking in. He did a great job with it, but now he's on the inside. We'll need a little bit of everything from him."

Freshman Shavar Newkirk, a two-time New York Daily News Bronx Player of the Year, will compete for playing time right out of the gate as Wilson's backup.

"Shavar is a point guard, through and through," said Martelli. "He has a knack for getting into the lane. He has grown up playing with good players, so he knows the responsibility of a point guard is to accent the strengths of his teammates."

Looking to make immediate impact on the wing is the highly-touted James Demery. The 6-6 forward averaged 18.0 points per game last season while leading his team to its third straight state title.

"James is an incredible athlete," Martelli said of Demery, who along with Wilson, Bembry, and Markell Lodge, is one of four North Carolina natives on the SJU roster. "He is a run attacker and he is a dynamite defender. He is also a very strong athlete, and has strength that you don't normally see in a young player."

Maschmeyer appeared in 23 games off the bench last season and will provide key backcourt depth and senior leadership.

The Hawks' depth was dealt a blow when it was announced that Papa Ndao will miss the season for medical reasons. The 6-8 forward gave the Hawks solid minutes and filled in admirably as a starter in a few games. But Martelli is still counting on the senior to lend his leadership as he will have a presence at all games and practices.

Miles and Baumann will see increased roles in the frontcourt this season. Miles made 28 appearances off the bench last season, and showed glimpses of his potential. Baumann appeared in 15 games as a redshirt freshman. Both players will compete for spots in the starting lineup come November.

"Isaiah knows how to score," said Martelli. "What we need is consistency from him, on the court and off the court."

"Javon was named the team's Most Improved Player last year because he earned that award," Martelli said of the center out of Germany. "He had better physical conditioning, and I think he made that jump. He had his first year here looking around at the speed of the way we live, the speed of the way we play. This is a very big period for him."

Joining them in the frontcourt is redshirt freshman Jai Williams. Williams spent last season on the sidelines, concentrating on his conditioning and individual skills. The work paid off as the 6-8 forward lost 40 pounds since coming to campus in 2013 and now is ready to contribute on the court.

Casper, a 6-6 forward, made eight appearances as a freshman walk-on last season and will look to contribute off the bench this season as well.

Newcomer Obi Romeo, who posted averages of 13.0 points and 14.0 rebounds per game last season, will seek playing time in the frontcourt.

"Obi has a body that is extraordinary," Martelli said of the 6-foot-10 Romeo. "He's a rim protector. He is a player that is begging us to coach him, and because of that, I see not just physical strength; I see him being ahead of a normal big that you bring in from high school."

Freshmen guards Mike Booth and Kyle Thompson join the roster as walk-ons.

Sitting out this season is 6-7 forward Lodge and junior transfer Skylar Scrivano.

The Hawks will appear on the national stage early as they will participate in the revamped NIT Season Tip-Off. Saint Joseph's will open play by traveling cross country to face Jesuit rival Gonzaga, rekindling a rivalry that was last played in 2007. The Hawks then host LIU Brooklyn in the second game of the tournament and will take on Western Kentucky on Thanksgiving in Madison Square Garden.

In addition to traditional games with city rivals Temple, Villanova, Penn, the non-conference schedule also features a second cross country trip to Denver in preparation for the conference season.

In Atlantic 10 play, the Hawks will face La Salle, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and St. Bonaventure twice. New A-10 member Davidson joins the league this season and will visit Hagan Arena in January. SJU will also make visits to VCU and Dayton, teams that the Hawks defeated en route to the A-10 Championship.

Preseason Notes

- Saint Joseph's enters the year as the defending Atlantic 10 champion, having won the program's third title om 2014, which was its first since 1997. The Hawks went 24-10 and earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, where they lost in overtime to eventual national champion Connecticut.
- Phil Martelli, in his 20th season as head coach at Saint Joseph's and 30th overall at the school, is the school's all-time leader in victories with a 362-247 record. Martelli guided the Hawks to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in 19 years, and his 12th overall postseason appearance. He is the longest current tenured coach in the Atlantic 10 and owns a career conference coaching record of 178-126.
- Returning starters DeAndre' Bembry and Chris Wilson were voted team co-captains. Bembry, who becomes only the second sophomore captain in SJU history, was the A-10's Co-Rookie of the Year and the Big 5 Rookie of the Year after averaging 12.1 points and 4.5 rebounds per game. Wilson, a senior, was the Hawks' starting point guard last year and averaged a career-best 9.1 points per game.
- Leading the newcomers is junior Aaron Brown, who sat out 2013-14 after transferring from West Virginia. Redshirt freshman Jai Williams will also make his Hawk debut in 2014-15.
- The Hawks welcome four true freshmen into the fold - James Demery, Markell Lodge, Shavar Newkirk and Obi Romeo. Demery is a 6-6 wing from Northside Christian Academy (N.C.); Lodge is a 6-7 forward from Pace Academy (N.C.); Newkirk is a 5-11 point guard from Cardinal Hayes (N.Y.); and Romeo is a 6-10 forward from Greenbrier East (W. Va.).
- Kyle Molock, a redshirt freshman last year, had career-ending knee surgery in February, and will serve as a student assistant.
- SJU will participate in the NIT Season Tip-Off. The Hawks will travel to Gonzaga on November 19, and then return home to host LIU Brooklyn on November 22. SJU will conclude play in the tournament on Thanksgiving night when it faces Western Kentucky at Madison Square Garden. It marks the second year in a row that the Hawks will have a game on Thanksgiving last season, the team took on LSU in the Old Spice Classic in Orlando.
- Saint Joseph's will wear a "JR" patch on its uniforms this season to remember Hall of Fame coach Dr. Jack Ramsay, who passed away in April. "Dr. Jack" compiled a 234-72 record and guided the Hawks to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances and nine consecutive postseason bids from 1955-66. He went on to amass 864 wins in the NBA and helped the Philadelphia 76ers to the 1967 championship as general manager and coached the Portland Trailblazers to the 1977 NBA title. He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1992.

2014 ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONS

The championship season started with a 12-day trip to Italy in August 2013. The Hawks went 4-0, but more importantly, strengthened their chemistry which would prove to be beneficial during the year.

The Hawks celebrated a championship, which was the culmination of a season in which they went 20-6 from early December on, posting a 24-10 record on the year.

The championship was the third in SJU's history, with the last one coming in 1997.

Senior Langston Galloway was one of the catalysts for the Hawks, leading the team in scoring with 17.7 points per game and earning Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team honors.

Phil Martelli and Halil Kanacevic share some words during the celebration. Kanacevic was a unique player for the Hawks, leading the team in assists from the forward spot. He averaged 15.3 points and 14.3 rebounds in the A-10 Championship to earn the Most Outstanding Performer Award.

"THE GREATEST HAWK"

On April 28, 2014, Saint Joseph's University and the sport of basketball lost one of its greatest coaches, teachers and innovators with the passing of coaching legend Dr. Jack Ramsay. Dr. Jack made his mark in the collegiate and professional ranks, and more recently, as a broadcaster, up until his retirement.

In 11 seasons at Saint Joseph's, he amassed a 234-72 record and guided the Hawks to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances and nine consecutive postseason bids, both of which are school records. His 1961 team made the school's only appearance in the NCAA Final Four and the 1965-66 team was ranked number one in the preseason by Sports Illustrated.

After leaving Saint Joseph's in 1966, he embarked on a successful career in the NBA. In his first job as general manager of the Philadelphia 76ers, that team won the 1967 world championship and is still considered one of the most dominant teams in NBA history. As a head coach in the NBA, he won 864 games in 21 seasons and guided the Portland Trailblazers to the 1977 title.

The Hawks will honor Coach Ramsay this season by wearing a "JR" patch on their uniforms.

Dr. Jack received the game's highest honor when he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1992. He was honored by Saint Joseph's with the Shield of Loyola Award (1984), as well as induction into the Athletics Hall of Fame (1999) and Basketball Hall of Fame (1974), and was further recognized by the University in 2009 with the naming of the Ramsay Basketball Center.

Saint Joseph's basketball will remember Dr. Jack and honor his legacy during the 2014-15 season.

Dr. Jack made what would be his last appearance on campus at the Hawks' game with Creighton in November, 2013, as his 1962-63 team was honored on its 50th anniversary. He made the presentation of the game ball along with one of the stars of that team, Tom Wynne.

Coach Ramsay's total of 1,098 combined wins in his coaching career, both college and pro, remains one of the game's highest totals.

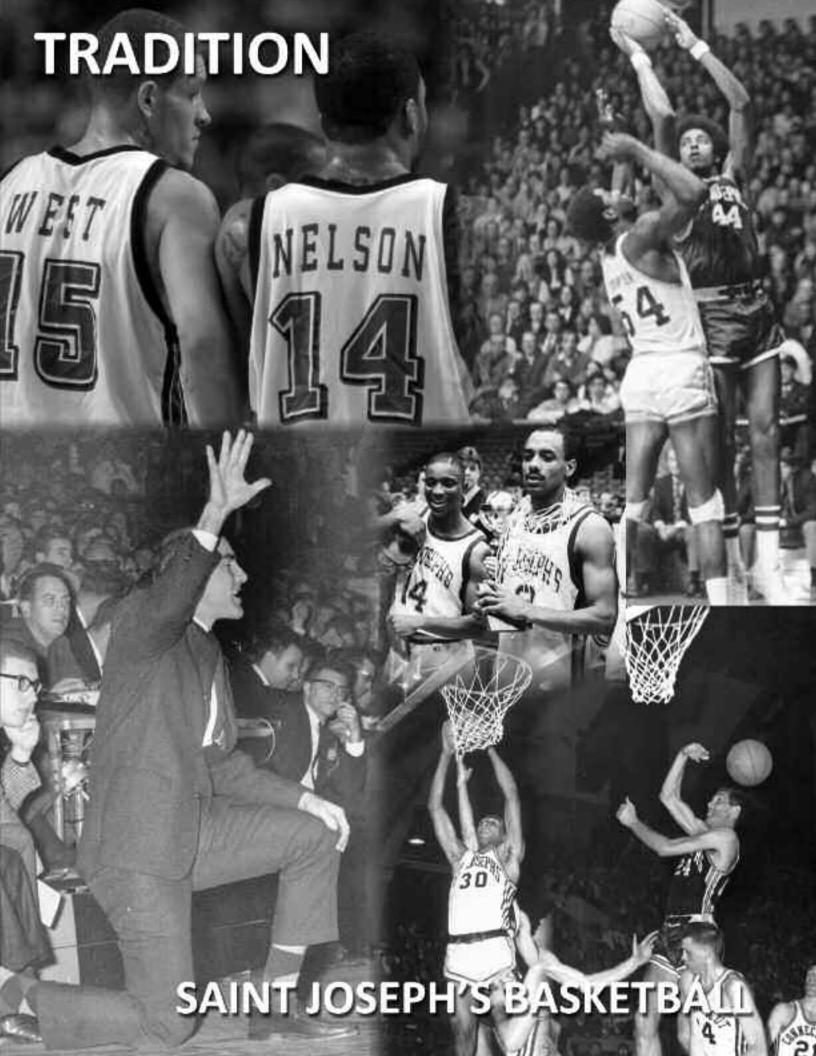

Dr. Jack mentored five SJU players who became NBA head coaches - Jack McKinney, Paul Westhead, Jim Lynam, Matt Guokas (pictured) and Jim O'Brien.

During his 21 seasons as an NBA head coach, Ramsay won 864 games and guided the Portland Trailblazers to the 1977 world championship.

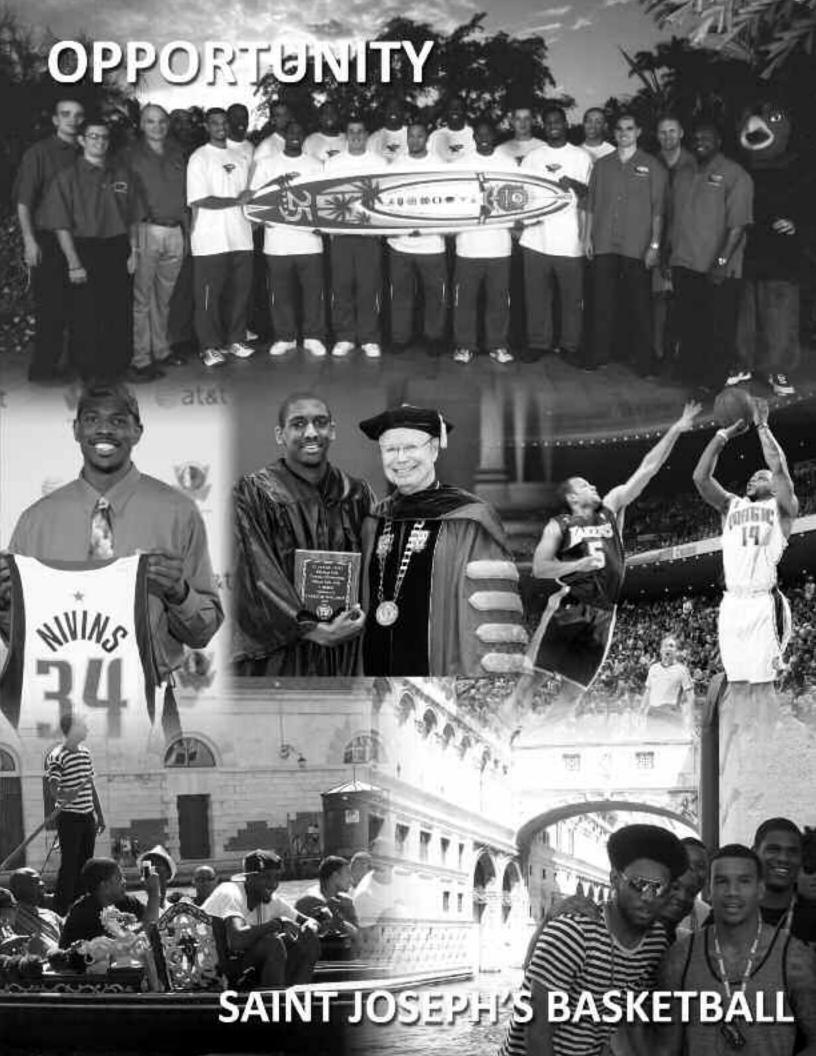

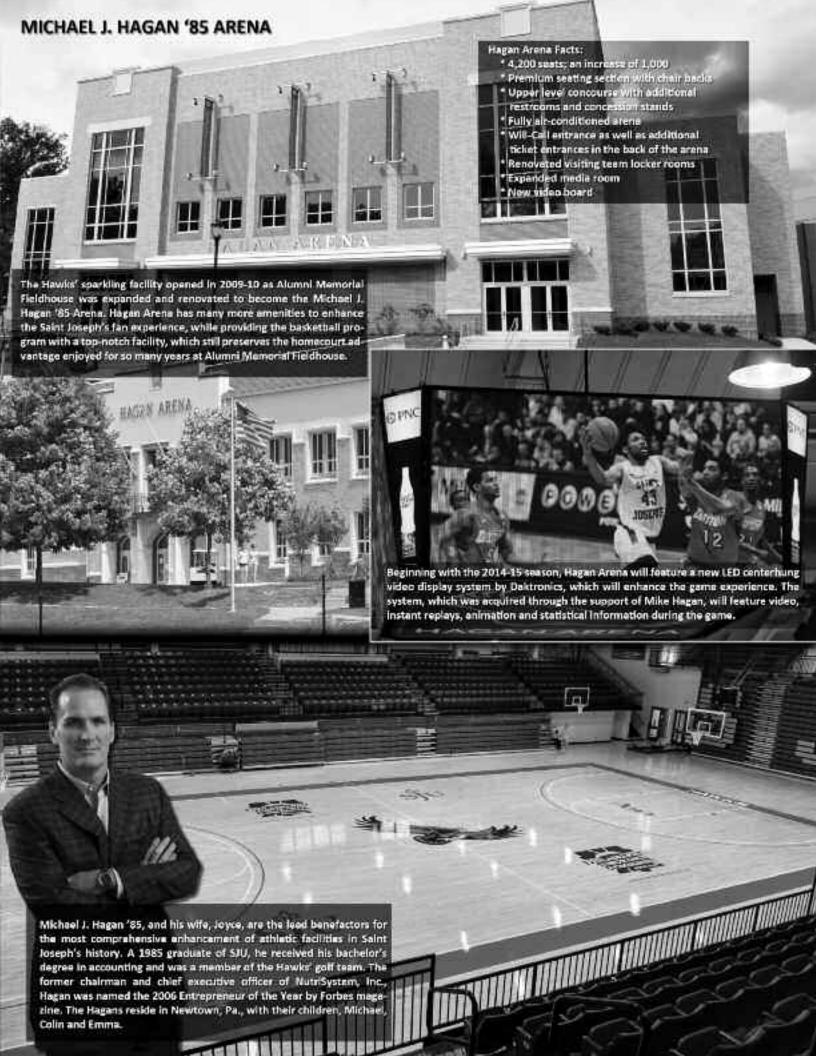

Dr. Jack was inducted into the SJU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999 (above), but received the game's highest honor with induction into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in 1992.

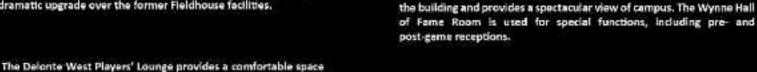

The Ramsay Basketball Center provides state-of-the-art facilities for the Saint Joseph's men's and women's basketball programs, as well as the Oakes Athletic Communications Office. The locker rooms, players' lounges, study spaces and video capabilities are a dramatic upgrade over the former Fieldhouse facilities.

for the Hawks with top-of-the-line audio and video components.

The Ramsay Basketball Center includes offices for men's and women's basketball. Head coach Phil Martelli's office suite consists of a large office with an adjoining conference room.

The men's basketball locker room is named for former Hawk standout and current Orlando Magic star Jameer Nelson (below).

Head Coach - 20th Season

- 2004 Consensus National Coach of the Year
  - Four-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year •
  - Past President, NABC Board of Directors

The 2014-15 season marks the 20th for Phil Martelli as head coach at Saint Joseph's. During his time with the Hawks he has built a program that is consistently one of the top in the conference, a perennial post-season participant and a key player on the national scene, while earning his place among the top coaches in the school's storied history and becoming one of the more respected coaches in the game. The 2014-15 season will be his 30th year overall at SJU, which includes 10 seasons as an assistant coach.

Martelli is the Hawks' all-time leader in career victories with a mark of 362-247. He set the record with the victory over Morgan State on December 28, 2011, breaking the mark held by Bill Ferguson (309). Setting the school record for wins in a season (30) in 2004, Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories eight times in the past 19 seasons, which is the most for any Hawks' coach. He is 178-126 in Atlantic 10 play, which is the most conference wins for any active coach.

He has also served the game of basketball as a Past President of the NABC's Board of Directors as well as a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition.

In 2013-14, Martelli and his veteran team turned in one of the more memorable seasons in school history, adding another A-10 Championship to his résumé. The Hawks, led by seniors Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic and Ronald Roberts, Jr., won 20 of 26 games from mid-December and captured the school's third conference title and its first since 1997. SJU went 24-10 and reached the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time under Martelli, falling to eventual national champion Connecticut in overtime.

The 2012-13 season saw an experienced Saint Joseph's squad reach the Atlantic 10 Quarterfinals and earn a second consecutive NIT bid, for the 11th postseason berth in Martelli's career. Among the highlights of the season was a win over nationally-ranked Notre Dame in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, a victory over local rival Temple and two wins over conference foe Xavier.

In 2011-12, Martelli and the Hawks became one of nine teams in the nation to win 20 games after losing 20 the previous season, and returned to the postseason with an NIT bid. Saint Joseph's boasted a young and exciting squad, and one of the most balanced in school history, as five different players received Atlantic 10 honors, the most ever for the Hawks. SJU also scored two wins over Top 25 teams (Creighton and Temple) and Martelli became SJU's all-time leader in victories.

In 2010-11, Martelli guided the youngest squad in his career, which included three freshman starters. The Hawks made an exciting late-season run, earning a berth in the Atlantic 10 Tournament with a win in the final regular-season game, and won two games in the tourney to reach the semifinals. He reached two milestones with his 300th career victory (March 11) and his 150th conference win (March 5), while also coaching his 500th game and 250th A-10 contest.

Martelli's 2009-10 squad went 11-20 coming off a 2008-09 season that saw the Hawks go 17-15 for his ninth consecutive winning season. Among the highlights of '08-09 was Ahmad Nivins earning AP Honorable Mention All-America honors and becoming the third Hawk in six years to garner the Atlantic 10's Player of the Year Award. Nivins was chosen by the Dallas Mavericks in the 2009 NBA Draft, becoming the third player coached by Martelli to be drafted.

The 2007-08 Hawks reached the Atlantic 10 Championship game for the third time in four years and earned the program's 19th bid to the NCAA Tournament and Martelli's fifth. The 11th-seeded Hawks fell to sixth-seeded Oklahoma in the NCAA First Round, ending the year at 21-13.

He reached a significant milestone in 2006-07 when he surpassed Hall of Famer Jack Ramsay for second place on the school's all-time list for wins, guiding a young squad to 18 victories.

Martelli has been at his best when it counts the most as his 17 postseason wins (6 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in school history, ahead of Ramsay's 12. Martelli ranks first among Hawk coaches with a .608 postseason winning percentage (17-12) and has taken SJU to the postseason in 10 of the last 14 years, and 12 times in his 19 seasons at SJU.

Martelli turned in another top-notch coaching performance in 2005-06. The Hawks went from a 10-12 record in February to win the final five games of the regular season and three straight in the conference tournament to reach the Atlantic 10 championship for the second year in a row, falling just one point short of the title. The Hawks were rewarded with their sixth consecutive postseason bid, but saw the season come to an end in the NIT second round, closing with a 19-14 mark.

His effort was similar to the previous season where he turned in perhaps a more remarkable coaching job than in 2003-04 when he was the consensus National Coach of the Year. Faced with the loss of two NBA first-round draft picks from the '03-04 squad that went 30-2, the 2004-05 Hawks struggled early on, but Martelli reworked the team's style of play to guide SJU to 21 wins in the calendar year of 2005 to finish 24-12. Saint Joseph's posted the conference's best record (14-2) and won its fifth straight regular-season title to tie the league record. The Hawks garnered the top seed in the conference tournament for the second year in a row and reached the championship game. He was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his career. The Hawks earned their fifth consecutive postseason bid and made an exciting six-game run in the NIT, falling on a last-second shot in the championship game. It marked the second time in his career that he guided SJU to the NIT title game.

In 2003-04, Martelli guided a focused and unselfish squad that became the most compelling story in college basketball. The Hawks went undefeated in the regular season, reached the pinnacle as the top-ranked team in the nation and earned the school's first-ever number-one seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Elite Eight. Jameer Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year and, along with teammate Delonte West, was a first-round selection in the NBA Draft. The Hawks became the first team since 1990-91 to go through the regular season without a loss (27-0). SJU opened the season ranked 12th in the polls and moved up throughout the year, taking the top spot on March 8, 2004, for the first time ever. SJU finished fifth for its highest final ranking since 1966. It was a school-record fourth straight season, and fifth in Martelli's tenure, that the Hawks were ranked in the AP poll.

Martelli guided SJU to its fourth NCAA appearance in nine seasons, and its first back-to-back berths since 1982. The top-seeded Hawks reached the Elite Eight for the first time since 1981 before falling to Oklahoma State in a heartbreaker, 64-62.

He joined Nelson to sweep the National Coach and Player of the Year awards, marking one of the few times in history that the top player and coach were from the same school. Martelli won the 2004 Naismith Award, the Henry Iba Award (USBWA), the inaugural Adolph Rupp Cup, the Coach of the Year awards from both the Associated Press and CBS/Chevrolet, and the NABC Co-Coach of the Year award. Phil Martelli set the school record for victories when Saint Joseph's defeated Morgan State on December 28, 2011. It was the 310th win of Martelli's career, breaking the mark of 309 previously held by Bill Ferguson.

During that season, the Hawks also won their second outright Big 5 title under Martelli and their fourth straight Atlantic 10 regular season crown. The squad was the recipient of the prestigious Wanamaker Award, given to the team or athlete which brings the greatest credit to the city of Philadelphia, and was named the Team of the Year by the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

One of the more colorful coaches in the nation, Martelli's personality, wit and accessibility have always made him a media favorite. His popularity grew to an even higher level in 2004, as the Hawks remained unbeaten and the coach was besieged by media requests from all over the country. Martelli remained as accommodating as ever and the Saint Joseph's story was well-documented by the Philadelphia press and told by countless media outlets nationwide. He continues to be called on for his opinion on issues and was an in-studio guest for the Turner Networks coverage of the 2011 NCAA Tournament.

He served as the head coach of the 2005 USA Under-21 World Championship Team, which competed at the FIBA U21 World Championship in Argentina, earning a fifth-place finish. He had previously worked with USA Basketball as an assistant coach for the USA's gold-medal winning teams at both the 2001 FIBA World Championship for Young Men and the 1998 Goodwill Games.

Martelli added the title of "author" to his résumé, in 2007, when he co-wrote a book, "Don't Call Me Coach: A Lesson Plan for Life" with Harold Gullan, Ph.D.

Martelli's commitment to Saint Joseph's is equaled by SJU's commitment to him. Having received a contract extension in 2004, the University took that further in 2008 when it extended his contract through 2015-16.

He is not only passionate for coaching, but also for his work in the community. He serves as the chair of the Coaches vs. Cancer National Council as well as the co-chair of the Philadelphia chapter of Coaches vs. Cancer, which is one of the top fundraising groups in the country. In 2012, he received the Distinguished Service Award from the American Cancer Society's Southeast Region. Martelli and the Philadelphia coaches were honored at the 2004 NCAA Final Four with the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award and with the Community Service Award from the Philadelphia Sports Congress. In 2012, the Philadelphia coaches were honored with the Institute for Sport, Spirituality and Character Development Award as presented by Neumann University.

The coach has received numerous honors for his community work, highlighted by three honorary degrees. Martelli's alma mater, Widener University, bestowed upon him one of its highest honors on May 15, 2004 with an honorary doctorate in public service for his "altruistic work in the community and his positive influence as a teacher, coach and role model." On May 21, 2006, he addressed the graduates of Cabrini College and received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree in recognition of his "extraordinary career and service to the community." And in 2010, Martelli gave the commencement address at Immaculata University, while receiving a doctorate of humane letters.

Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year

He was also named the "Citizen of the Year" by the March of Dimes in 2004, was inducted into the CYO Hall of Fame for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and was honored by the National Adoption Center. In 2006, Martelli was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Kennedy-Kenrick High School (formerly Bishop Kenrick), where he coached.

Martelli views himself as an ambassador for the University and takes the role very seriously. He is one of the most sought-after public speakers in Philadelphia, with an appeal that stretches even further outside the area. Making countless appearances year-round, he finds the time for many organizations, no matter how large or small.

Martelli has served as the honorary chairperson for the Centennial celebration of Ken-Crest, the largest community-based service provider for children and adults with disabilities in Southeastern Pennsylvania and Delaware.

After 10 years as an assistant at SJU, Martelli was named the 14th coach in school history on July 20, 1995, and was just the third non-alumnus to follow in the storied tradition of Hawk coaches.

Martelli burst onto the scene in 1995-96 and took SJU to the NIT Championship game as a rookie head coach, becoming just the fifth first-year head coach to take a team to the tournament's Final Four since the field expanded to 32 teams in 1980. Martelli led the '95-96 Hawks, which had lost the school's all-time leading scorer and a 1,000-point, 1,000-rebound performer, to a 19-13 record, tying him for third place with Jim Lynam (1978-79) for victories by a first-year SJU coach.

Expectations for 1996-97 were for a winning campaign. And after a disheartening season-opening rout at Duke (89-60) in the first round of the Preseason NIT, Martelli and his charges regrouped and turned in one of the best seasons in the program's history. The team's accomplishments, most of which have now been surpassed by the '03-04 team, included a then-record-tying 26 wins (seven losses), and a final national ranking of 12th by the Associated Press and 17th by CNN/USA Today. The squad also put together a 10-game winning streak and three wins over Top 25 teams while winning both the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament titles. The Hawks advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 before suffering a loss to defending national champion Kentucky.

With the team's success came individual accolades for the second-year coach. He garnered Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors as well as being named District Coach of the Year by the USBWA, NABC, Eastern Basketball and Basketball Times. Martelli was also named the Eastern College Coach of the Year and was the co-recipient of the Big 5 award.

Martelli's third year at the helm was a true test of his character. The season started with the loss of one of his key players to academics and two recruits to NCAA initial eligibility rules. Despite the depleted lineup, the coach kept the team competitive throughout the season, as the Hawks struggled to find wins while facing one of the most demanding schedules in school history. They totaled 11 wins, but the "never say die" spirit of SJU was evidenced by the team holding leads over five nationally-ranked teams late in the second half.

In 1998-99, the Hawk mentor faced perhaps his toughest challenge as a head coach, guiding a team that started a school-record four newcomers through a tough non-conference slate and the always imposing A-10 battles. Martelli and SJU got off to a strong start, defeating No. 21 Tennessee and winning the Cable Car Classic en route to a 9-7 record at mid-January. Youth finally caught up to the Hawks, however, as the team experienced a nine-game losing streak and finished the season with a 12-18 overall mark.

The 1999-2000 season included many highlights as the coach guided the team to a stunning 62-59 win over then-No. 5 Temple at The Palestra on February 29. It was Martelli's first win over Temple and the program's first win over a Top 5 team since February, 1984 (No. 2 DePaul). The team's 13-16 record was deceiving as the Hawks played a schedule ranked 32nd toughest in the nation.

Picked by most as a middle-of-the-pack Atlantic 10 team in 2000-01, SJU started strong, posting a 7-3 record in its first 10 games, and finished even stronger, going 14-2 in the conference to win the single division A-10 regular season title. Overall, the Hawks again tied the school-record for wins, compiling a 26-7 mark. The team moved into the Top 25 in both major polls in February, and was ranked in the final polls (No. 22 AP; No. 24 ESPN/USA Today).

Despite its ranking, and the presence of one of the nation's finest backcourts in junior Marvin O'Connor and National Freshman of the Year Jameer Nelson, SJU earned an at-large bid but only a number-nine seed. The Hawks responded by downing eighth-seeded Georgia Tech, 66-62, in the first round of the West Regional in San Diego. The team then showed its true mettle, battling top seed Stanford in one of the most exciting games of the NCAA Tournament before falling, 90-83.

As in 1996-97, Martelli picked up much-deserved hardware following the season. He was named Coach of the Year by the Atlantic 10, NABC (District III) and Philadelphia's Basketball Writers (Eastern College Coach of the Year). Nationally, he was a finalist for the national Coach of the Year by ESPN the Magazine and also a finalist for the Naismith College Basketball Coach of the Year award.

In the 2001-02 preseason, the Hawks were ranked as high as eighth by Sports Illustrated and 10th by both major polls. SJU stayed in the polls until mid-December when three straight losses (North Carolina, Georgia State and Gonzaga), all coinciding with an injury to All-American guard O'Connor, saw the team fall from the rankings. Saint Joseph's rebounded to post a 19-12 record, share the A-10 East title for Martelli's third regular-season crown, and earn its fourth postseason bid in seven years (NIT).

In 2002-03, after graduating four fifth-year seniors that compiled over 5,000 points and 2,200 rebounds, the Hawks were picked to be in the middle of the A-10 East Division. With arguably the nation's best point guard in the fold in Nelson, Martelli built the team around defense and perimeter play. The plan worked as SJU went on to lead the nation in field goal percentage defense (.372) and ranked seventh in scoring defense (59.5 ppg). The team cracked the national polls in February and ended the season with its third straight A-10 regular season title, second NCAA at-large bid in three seasons and a 23-7 record, despite a late-season injury to Delonte West.

Off the court, Martelli's lighter side has been featured weekly on his HawkTalk television show, which ran for 15 seasons as the most unique coach's show in the nation, with a "Tonight Show" format. Game highlights were included, but were secondary to the jokes and humorous interviews. Named the best coach's show in college basketball by The Sporting News in 2001, HawkTalk gained a much greater audience in its third year (1998-99), with its move to Comcast SportsNet, Philadelphia's regional all-sports station. The show's viewer base grew even more in 2003-04, when national network CBS College Sports aired the show for five years.

A four-time Atlantic 10 (1997, 2000, 2004, 2005) and four-time USBWA District Coach of the Year (1997, 2001, 2003, 2004), Martelli is one of just three Hawk coaches to record 200 career wins, posting his milestone victory against Buffalo on March 19, 2005.

A 1976 graduate of Widener University, Martelli began his career on Hawk Hill with SJU's 1985-86 team, which reached the NCAA Tournament. In his decade as an assistant, he was part of the Hawks' NIT teams in 1992-93 and 1994-95.

Prior to his arrival at SJU, Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School in Norristown, Pa. At Kenrick, he led his team to six straight Catholic League playoff appearances, a school record, and still owns the school's all-time mark for wins with 108. His best season came in 1982, when he was named Prep Coach of the Year by both the Philadelphia Inquirer and Philadelphia Daily News. He earned similar honors in both 1980 and 1982 for Montgomery County from the Norristown Times-Herald

Martelli began his career as the junior varsity coach at Cardinal O'Hara High in Springfield, Pa., for the 1976-77 season. He moved on the following year to become an assistant at his alma mater, where he helped guide Widener to the NCAA Division III Final Four. After that season, he accepted the head job at Kenrick.

As a player, he was part of Widener's NCAA Tournament teams in both 1974-75 and 1975-76, serving as team co-captain as a senior. A point guard, he also set the school's single season and career assist marks.

Martelli and his wife, Judy, a former basketball player with the national champion Immaculata College teams in the 1970s, have three children - Phil, Jr., Jimmy, and Elizabeth. Phil, Jr. is an assistant basketball coach at the University of Delaware while he and Elizabeth are both Saint Joseph's graduates. They have five grandchildren - Philip Stephen, Marra, Avery, Brynley and Madalyn.

Now in his 20th season as Saint Joseph's, Phil Martelli is currently the longest tenured coach in the Atlantic 10.

For Phil Martelli, it's always "family first". Here, the Martelli family celebrates with Judy Martelli at the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame induction ceremony in 2014. Judy was a member of the Immaculata College teams which won two national championships in the 1970's.

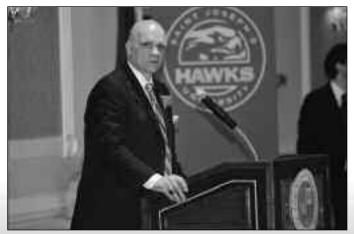

Martelli received his third honorary doctorate in six years when he gave the Commencement Address at Immaculata University in 2010. His alma mater, Widener University, had bestowed the honor upon him in 2004, while he also received an honorary degree in 2006 from Cabrini College.

Martelli's grandson, Philip Stephen Martelli, gained national media attention during the Atlantic 10 and NCAA Tournaments for mimicking his grandfather during Hawk games.

One of the more respected coaches in the game, Martelli is the Past President of the NABC's Board of Directors and is a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition.

Martelli serves as the co-chair of the Philadelphia chapter of Coaches vs. Cancer with Temple coach Fran Dunphy. The Philadelphia coaches have become one of the highest fundraising groups in the country.

MARK BASS

Assistant Coach 16th Season

Mark Bass, one of the most prolific shooters in Saint Joseph's history, is the veteran among the Hawks' assistant coaches, and is now entering his 16th season at his alma mater. He is the second-longest tenured assistant coach in SJU men's basketball history, behind Dan Kenney, who was an assistant for 17 seasons (1953 to 1970).

Bass joined the Hawks' staff in 1999-2000 and during his tenure, has been involved with teams that have made six consecutive post-season appearances, won five Atlantic 10 regular-season titles and captured the 2014 A-10 title. Nine years after he led the Hawks to the NIT Final as a player in 1996, Bass again helped SJU reach New York City and the NIT Final as a coach in 2005.

In 2005, Bass was honored with the William J. Bennett Memorial Award, recognizing dedication and loyalty to the Saint Joseph's men's basketball program. He was a co-recipient of the award with then-fellow staff member Monté Ross.

A fiery leader on the court, and two-year team captain, Bass led the Hawks to the NIT Finals in his senior season, 1995-96, and ranked second on the team with his average of 14.3 points per game. He connected for school records of 91 3-pointers and 268 attempts, season marks which were later eclipsed by Pat Carroll in 2005. A Second Team All-Big 5 selection in 1996, Bass made 225 three-pointers during his career from 1992-96, a total that now ranks sixth on the Hawks'

The Bass Family - Jordan Richard, Tracie, Mark and James Noel

all-time list. As a freshman, the guard led the Atlantic 10 Conference in free throw percentage with a school-record 86.9 percent, a mark which was broken by Langston Galloway in 2011-12 (88.7). Bass also led the A-10 in three-point percentage as a junior (.423), making him just the second Saint Joseph's player to lead the league in two different categories.

In 2001, Bass became the first member of the 1996 NIT Finalist team to be inducted into the Saint Joseph's Basketball Hall of Fame.

Upon graduation he played one season of professional basketball with the Tianjin Breakers in the Chinese Professional League in 1996-97. Following that, he served two seasons (1997-99) as an assistant coach under Max Good at Maine Central Institute, helping guide the team to back-to-back New England Prep School Championships, including a perfect 35-0 season in 1997-98.

A 1991 graduate of McCorristin High School in New Jersey and native of Trenton, Bass was named the Mercer County Player of the Year as a senior and set the all-time scoring record with 1,482 points in his career. He played for one year at Maine Central Institute, helping the squad to a 27-1 record with the lone loss coming in the New England Prep School Championship game. He was inducted into the Mercer County CYO Hall of Fame in November, 2004.

Bass resides with his wife, Tracie, and their two young sons, James Noel and Jordan Richard, in Lawnside, N.J.

DAVID DUDA

Assistant Coach 9th Season

David Duda is in his ninth season at Saint Joseph's having added head coaching experience to the staff.

At SJU, Duda has been instrumental in the development of the Hawks' post players, such as A-10 All-Conference selection Ronald Roberts, Jr., and 2009 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Ahmad Nivins.

Duda came to SJU in 2006 after eight years as head coach at Widener University, where he compiled a 143-68 record, with two Middle Atlantic Conference Commonwealth championships and three trips to the NCAA Division III Tournament. He also served as Widener's athletic director from 2003 to 2006, overseeing the operation of the University's athletics program with 20 varsity teams.

Widener enjoyed its greatest success under his leadership in 2005-06, when the team finished 23-6, won the Commonwealth Conference regular-season title and made the school's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance since 1987. Duda earned Coach of the Year honors for both the Commonwealth Conference and the NABC Mid-Atlantic Region.

Duda led the Pioneers to a record-breaking 24-4 season in 1999-2000 and was recognized as MAC Coach of the Year.

The Duda family - David, Danielle, Barbara and David

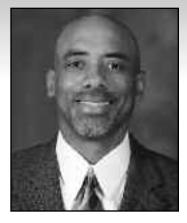

A 1988 graduate of Spring Garden College, where he was a two-time honorable mention All-American, Duda began his coaching career as the top assistant to Herb Magee at Philadelphia University. During those seven seasons the Rams had their most successful period in school history, and Philadelphia University was the winningest Division II school in the country during that span with a 171-35 record.

He moved on to be the head coach at Delaware Valley College in 1997 for two seasons. Duda turned around a team which had been 0-23, leading it to a 12-12 mark for the first non-losing season in 11 years. He earned the Freedom Conference Coach of the Year award in 1998. His career coaching record in 10 seasons is 159-99.

Duda's connection with the Hawks' head coach dates back to 1981 when he played for Martelli on the varsity team at Bishop Kenrick High School (1981-84).

Duda lives in Collegeville, Pa., with his wife, Barbara, and children, Danielle and David.

The 1986 graduate of Saint Joseph's is now in his second tenure as a full-time assistant coach, but was a volunteer assistant coach on Jim Boyle's staff in 1988-89, giving him a total of 10 years on the Hawks' bench.

Arnold has been part of two of the Hawks' Atlantic 10 Championships, as a player in 1986 and as an assistant coach in 2014.

Prior to making his return to Saint Joseph's, Arnold was the associate head coach at Drexel University for seven years. While there, he was instrumental in the Dragons' recruiting efforts that helped them reach the postseason four times in seven seasons, including a 23-9 record in 2006-07.

The 1986 SJU graduate previously served as an assistant coach with the Hawks from 1993 to 1996. That stint included one year with Martelli, who was in his first season (1995-96) as head coach, where the Hawks went 26-6 and reached the NIT Championship game.

Arnold left Saint Joseph's in 1997 to join former Hawk teammate Bruiser Flint at the University of Massachusetts, serving on Flint's staff for five years. He then returned to Philadelphia in 2001 when Flint was named head coach at Drexel.

The Arnold family - Stephanie, Geoff and Gabrielle

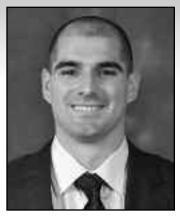

Arnold, a senior tri-captain for the 1985-86 Saint Joseph's team that won the Atlantic 10 Championship, recorded 26 wins and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament. During his senior season, which was Martelli's first as an assistant coach at SJU, the guard averaged 8.9 points and led the team with 134 assists. He was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Basketball Hall of Fame in 1992.

Upon graduation from Saint Joseph's, Arnold played for the Wildwood Aces of the United States Basketball League and then served as an assistant coach for one season. After one year out of basketball, he became a full-time assistant with the Hawks in 1992-93, working on John Griffin's staff for three seasons.

THE HAWK

One of the most famous mascots in college sports, the Saint Joseph's Hawk has flapped its wings for 58 seasons.

The Hawk is best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its wings throughout every basketball game and representing the Saint Joseph's motto, "The Hawk Will Never Die."

Jim Brennan originated the idea for a hawk as mascot during the 1954-55 season. Brennan, an ex-Marine and SJU cheerleader, at first wanted to secure an actual hawk, but later switched to the costume idea. The student government raised the 120 dollars needed to buy the initial costume, which Brennan donned for three years. He made his debut as the Hawk on January 4, 1956, a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra. Since then, and including this season, a total of 31 SJU students have donned the costume. The Hawk has not missed a men's basketball game since that first season in 1955-56.

There have been two women to serve as the mascot - Sara Brennan, in 2000-01 and Brienne Ryan in 2009-10.

In addition to the constant flapping, the Hawk is also recognized by its "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. Years ago, ESPN used a "flap-o-meter" on the national telecast of a Saint Joseph's game to estimate that the Hawk flaps its wings 3,500 times during a regulation game.

The Hawk is unique because it is one of the few mascots in the nation that travels to every game, and the student who holds the position gains a tuition scholarship. The student, who is selected through an interview process during the previous spring semester, also serves as a team manager for the men's basketball team and travels with the squad.

The most decorated mascot in the country, The Hawk has garnered numerous accolades in its 57-year history. In 2013-14, NCAA.com named The Hawk as "College Basketball's Best Tradition". The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, Sports Illustrated for Kids, Street & Smith's Basketball Yearbook and ESPN College Basketball magazine have selected it as the nation's top mascot. Eastern Basketball tabbed The Hawk as the Atlantic 10 Conference's best mascot, while The Hawk won a "Best of Philly" award from Philadelphia Magazine in 2003-04. The Hawk was selected as a 2008 nominee for the Mascot Hall of Fame.

Saint Joseph's athletic teams have been recognized with the nickname "Hawks" since 1929. At that time, the school's yearbook editor, Charlie Dunn, initiated a contest among the student body for a symbol. More than 100 submissions were narrowed to two, with "Hawks" winning out over "Grenadiers" (World War I soldiers who specialized in tossing grenades) by a slim margin in the final vote.

John Gallagher '31, a catcher on the Saint Joseph's baseball team, submitted the winning suggestion. He won a sweater with a special Saint Joseph's monogram for selecting the winning name. According to the Student Annual, the nickname was appropriate because it typified "the fighting spirit of our crimson and gray athletes and it is suggestive of the aerial attack which has made our football team famous." Ironically, football was discontinued at Saint Joseph's following the 1939 season.

But it has been the connection with the storied tradition of the Saint Joseph's men's and women's basketball programs that has given The Hawk mascot its prominence on the national level, making it one of the most recognized mascots in college athletics.

A criminal justice major and Dean's List student from Springfield, Pa. and Cardinal O'Hara High School, Lafferty has held numerous positions on campus, including vice president of the University Student Senate, resident assistant, and coordinator of Freshman Orientation. # 2014 CHAMPIONS

Character.... chemistry .... champions.

Those three words defined the 2013-14 Saint Joseph's Hawks as they turned in one of the most memorable seasons in school history by winning the Atlantic 10 Championship and returning SJU to the NCAA Tournament.

The foundation was established in the previous off-season, and strengthened in the summer, as SJU traveled to Italy. The Hawks took in the culture and sights and got a start on the basketball season, but more importantly, strengthened a bond that would be a key to the championship season.

Expectations for 2013-14 were high as Saint Joseph's returned its core group of starters - Langston Galloway, Halil Kanacevic, Ronald Roberts, Jr., and Chris Wilson - who were joined by highly-touted freshman DeAndre' Bembry.

After opening with two wins, Saint Joseph's faced Creighton and eventual National Player of the Year Doug McDermott in Hagan Arena. The hard-fought game went down to the wire, with the Bluejays prevailing, but gave SJU fans a glimpse of what they could expect from the Hawks.

The Hawks traveled to Disney World and the ESPN Old Spice Classic for three games over Thanksgiving. Paced by Galloway and Roberts, they earned victories over Siena and Washington State. Roberts became the 51st Hawk to score 1,000 points and earned All-Tournament honors there.

The return to Philadelphia brought the lowest point of the season with back-to-back losses to Temple and Villanova, but the players showed their resiliency and refused to give up. What happened from that point forward showed the true character of the 2013-14 Hawks.

The turnaround began at Hagan Arena against Drexel, with a 20-point rout that would start a five-game winning streak. Kanacevic dominated, hitting all but one of his 13 shots, grabbing 14 rebounds and scoring a career-high 27 points. Bembry added 18 points and continued to show his impact.

More wins followed as the Hawks dominated Loyola on the road, rallied for a home victory over Boston University with double-figure games from Wilson and Roberts, and routed Binghamton on New Year's Eve as Galloway scored 20 points and made six three-pointers.

SJU rang in the new year against a tough Denver team and despite trailing by 11 points, battled back as Galloway and Bembry scored double figures to give the Hawks a 9-4 record at the start of 2014.

The winning streak ended in the conference opener at UMass, but the Hawks rebounded quickly with a win at George Mason. Playing without Roberts and Isaiah Miles due to injuries, Papa Ndao stepped in admirably, scoring a career-high 13 points on 4-for-4 shooting. Galloway and Kanacevic put the Hawks on their backs and led them down the stretch to post the gritty 84-80 road victory.

SJU returned to Philadelphia and cruised to wins over Duquesne and Penn, for Phil Martelli's 350th victory. The Hawks followed that with a 61-57 win over Rhode Island as Roberts scored 20 points.

The game at Dayton went down to the wire but Galloway hit a last second three-pointer for the first game-winning shot of his career. The 60-57 win set the stage for upcoming meetings with the Flyers and was the Hawks' 10th win in 12 games.

In the 77-62 loss at Richmond, Galloway etched his name into the record book by hitting the 295th three-pointer of his career to break Hall of Famer Pat Carroll's mark of 294.

With NCAA Tournament talk surrounding the Hawks, SJU faced a key stretch at Hagan Arena against the A-10's top teams. The Hawks started off by avenging the earlier loss to #21 UMass, 73-68, as four players scored double figures.

After a loss to #13 Saint Louis, the pressure was on to earn a quality win. Saint Joseph's did just that, defeating VCU in one of the most intense games of the season. SJU was up by double digits, and although the Rams cut it to three, the Hawks made key plays down the stretch. Galloway scored 24, Bembry had 18 points and Kanacevic posted 10 rebounds and seven assists, and took a charge with 32 seconds left to preserve the 69-62 win.

After consecutive road wins at La Salle and Rhode Island, the Hawks returned home to face Fordham. Galloway again established his place in SJU history when he connected on 10 three-point field goals, breaking a 25-year-old record.

The tourney talk continued and the Hawks were up against a Dayton squad that had won six straight. SJU turned in one of the most impressive efforts of the year going up by double digits quickly, and maintaining a 20-point lead most of the way to hand Dayton its worst loss of the year, 79-53. Wilson was perfect from the field, hitting all eight shots en route to a career-high 20 points, and Roberts scored 22, to give SJU its 20th win.

A pair of road games were crucial to the Hawks' NCAA chances. SJU pulled out a close one at St. Bonaventure, 83-74, as Galloway scored 27 points and Bembry had 18, but the Hawks fell victim to foul trouble at George Washington and suffered a 76-71 loss.

Returning home for Senior Day, the Hawks were out of character and suffered a potentially damaging loss to La Salle with back-to-back losses for the first time since December. But the Hawks again showed their resiliency and refused to let the goal of reaching the NCAA Tournament slip through their grasp.

As the fourth seed in the Atlantic 10 Tournament, the Hawks would meet Dayton for the third time, in a game that was billed as crucial to both team's NCAA chances. The A-10 quarterfinal game was intense and tight in the first half as both teams seemed to feel the pressure. SJU held a 66-60 lead with over four minutes to play, before Dayton took a 67-66 lead. But Galloway again worked his magic against the Flyers, hitting a stepback three-pointer with 19 seconds left to give Saint Joseph's the victory.

St. Bonaventure upset top-seeded Saint Louis and was next for the Hawks in the A-10 semifinals. Tied at halftime, the Hawks broke it open in the second half with hot shooting and a stifling defense and scored a 67-48 win over the Bonnies. Kanacevic led the way posting 26 points and 17 rebounds, including the 1,000th of his career as SJU earned a date with VCU in the Atlantic 10 title game for the first time in six years.

With the A-10 title and an NCAA bid on the line, the Hawks handled VCU's pressure defense and led most of the game. The Rams made a run in the second half but the Hawks were determined to bring home the conference crown. Galloway connected on another memorable three-pointer as his shot with over two minutes to play gave SJU the lead for good. Saint Joseph's then closed out the 65-61 victory from the foul line.

The Hawks celebrated the school's first conference championship since 1997 and punched their ticket to the NCAA Tournament. Kanacevic was chosen the Most Valuable Player of the championship and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Galloway and Roberts. Saint Joseph's players, staff and fans joined in the celebration as the Hawks realized their dream of cutting down the nets at the Barclays Center.

The Hawks could also relax and enjoy their accomplishment, knowing that in just a few hours, the name "Saint Joseph's" would appear in the bracket of 68.

Saint Joseph's players, and especially the seniors, had reached their season-long goal of selection to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawks were tabbed as the 10th seed and drew seventh-seeded Connecticut in Buffalo — a familiar destination, since 10 years ago, SJU started its run to the Elite Eight in the same city.

Saint Joseph's took in the full NCAA experience and wasn't content with just being there – it wanted to make its mark.

SJU played an impressive first half, with precision passes and 56 percent shooting, to take a seven-point lead at halftime. UConn would tighten the game late in the second half and the teams needed extra time to settle the score. With a three-pointer in overtime, Galloway secured his spot as the second leading scorer in school history. But once the overtime ended, eventual NCAA champion UConn had prevailed, 89-81, and Saint Joseph's seniors walked off the court for the last time as Hawks

Since the two consecutive losses in December, Saint Joseph's would go 20-6 the rest of the way and total 24 wins on the season.

SJU's seniors had compiled a 62-38 record in the past three years, with three straight post-season appearances. During their college careers, they had totaled close to 5,000 points and over 2,700 rebounds and clearly established their place in Hawk history.

Just as the season began, with memories made on a trip of a lifetime, the 2013-14 Hawks had created many memories for themselves and for Hawk fans everywhere. They made their mark as one of the best teams in school history and their teamwork, focus and character made them a source of pride for Saint Joseph's.

And the 2013-14 Hawks had accomplished something that had eluded many great Saint Joseph's teams – they had earned the title of "champions."

HISTORY

SJU BY THE NUMBERS

The national ranking Saint Joseph's earned in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls of March 8, 2004. It marked the first time ever that the Hawks were the nation's top-ranked team during the regular season. The other number-one spot in SJU history came when Sports Illustrated gave the Hawks the top preseason ranking prior to the 1965-66 season.

2 Number of players in school history who served as team captains as sophomores. DeAndre' Bembry was voted as team co-captain this season in his second year on the squad. The only other player to do so was Joe Oakes, who captained the famed "Mighty Mites" team in 1936-37.

3 Number of Atlantic 10 Championships won by the Hawks - 1986, 1997 and 2014. Phil Martelli was SJU's head coach for the last two and served as an assistant for the 1986 team.

The number Jeffery Clark, the point guard on the 1980-81 team, would raise above his head to signal the team's famed "four-to-score" offense. The offense worked to perfection in SJU's stunning 49-48 upset of #1 DePaul in the 1981 NCAA Tournament.

Consecutive Atlantic 10 regular season titles won by the Hawks (from 1999-00 to 2004-05) to share the conference record with the Massachusetts' teams of the mid-1990's.

Jack Ramsay (here with Joe Spratt) led his Hawk teams to 10 postseason appearances in 11 years, with a Final Four berth in 1961.

Number of players referred to as the "Mighty Mites," which helped put Saint Joseph's on the national basketball map in the 1930's. The "Mites" – Jim Smale, Matt Guokas, Sr., John Kenney, John McMenamin, Dan Kenney and Joe Oakes – compiled a 54-17 overall mark from 1934-38.

Number of Saint Joseph's alumni that have been head coaches in the NBA. Only Indiana has had more graduates (11) coach in the league.

Number of Hawks to foul out of a January 10, 1976, double overtime loss at Xavier. SJU finished the game with two eligible players as the NCAA, at the time, had a 10-man limit on travel parties. That restriction was soon lifted following the contest. The eight disqualifications is still an NCAA Division I basketball record.

10 Number of times legendary coach Dr. Jack Ramsay guided his teams to postseason appearances in his 11 years. Ramsay, who compiled a 234-72 record over his tenure at SJU (1955-56 through 1965-66), led the Hawks to the NIT Final Four in 1956 and the NCAA Final Four in 1961.

11 Number of Middle Atlantic Conference Championships that Saint Joseph's won from 1959 through 1974. SJU competed in that league, which also included current Atlantic 10 Conference members La Salle and Temple, from 1957-58 through 1973-74 before joining the now-defunct East Coast Conference. The Hawks joined the Atlantic 10 in 1982.

14 Uniform number worn by Jameer Nelson, which was retired after the 2003-04 season. Nelson was the consensus National Player of the Year, and the school's first-ever Wooden Award winner, while leading the Hawks to the magical perfect regular season and a berth in the NCAA Elite Eight.

Record for postseason coaching victories, NCAA and NIT combined, currently held by Phil Martelli.

19 Number of field goals made in a game by George Senesky against Rutgers-Newark on February 3, 1943. Senesky received the Helms Foundation Award given to the National Player of the Year and is the only Hawk player to lead the nation in scoring (23.4 ppg) in a season.

20 Individual season scoring average, a mark rarely eclipsed by the normally balanced SJU offense over the years. Before Marvin O'Connor averaged 22.1 points per game during the 2000-01 season, the last Hawks to accomplish the feat were Pat McFarland and Mike Bantom, who both averaged 20.3 points per game during the 1972-73 season. McFarland edged Bantom by one point for the scoring title that year, the closest race in SJU history. Jameer Nelson then achieved the feat in 2003-04 with his 20.6 mark.

Jack McKinney is one of seven Saint Joseph's alumni to have worked as head coaches in the NBA.

27 Number of consecutive wins for the 2003-04 team which became the first team to go through the regular season without a loss since UNLV in 1990-91. The streak stands as the longest in SJU history.

30 School record for wins achieved by the 2003-04 team, which finished with just two losses en route to a final national ranking of fifth.

33 Points scored by Delonte West in his "perfect game" on January 17, 2004 at Xavier. West made 12-of-12 field goals, went 3-for-3 from three-point range, and 6-for-6 from the foul line.

34 SJU record for rebounds in a game set by John Doogan against then-West Chester State on February 18, 1953.

36 Number of games played by the 2004-05 squad, which is a school record. The Hawks played six games in the NIT as they reached the final.

40 Record for points scored at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse set by Ed Garrity in a 111-92 win over Rhode Island on February 4, 1953.

School record for points set by Jack Egan against Gettysburg on January 21, 1961 and later tied by Tony Costner against Alaska-Anchorage on December 30, 1983.

50 The golden anniversaries of both the Hawk mascot and the Philadelphia Big 5 were celebrated in 2005-06. The Hawk made its debut on the court on January 4, 1956 (a 69-56 win over La Salle at The Palestra). The Big 5 is one of the most unique arrangements in the nation and is known for the intense city rivalries. Saint Joseph's played rival Villanova in the first-ever Big 5 game on December 14, 1955, with the Hawks scoring an 83-70 win.

57.5 Number of seconds it took Marvin O'Connor to score 18 points in the Hawks' 91-90 loss to La Salle on March 3, 2001. The guard finished the game with a career-high 37 points. O'Connor would also go on to score 37 points later that year in the heartbreaking 90-87 loss to Stanford in the NCAA Second Round.

59 Number of seasons at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. After a year at The Palestra, the Hawks returned to campus in 2009-10 to the expanded and renovated Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena.

79.9 Free throw percentage for the 2005-06 Hawks, which was the best in the nation.

98 Victories compiled by the winningest fouryear class in Saint Joseph's history – Tyrone Barley and Jameer Nelson.

100 The Centennial of Saint Joseph's basketball was celebrated in the 2009-10 season.

106 This is the 106th season of Saint Joseph's basketball.

117 Number of blocked shots posted by C.J. Aiken in 2010-11, which set the SJU freshman record. It also gave Aiken a 3.55 average, which ranked third in the nation.

120 Dollars – the cost of the first Hawk costume purchased by Jim Brennan prior to the 1955-56 season. The most decorated mascot in the nation, the Hawk has "flown" at every game since debuting at The Palestra against La Salle on January 4, 1956.

128 Most points scored by an SJU team. The Hawks defeated Nevada, 128-66, at The Palestra on December 15, 1971.

135 Record for games played in a career, set by Rob Ferguson from 2003-08.

144 Number of coaching wins by Jack McKinney (1966-67 thru 1973-74), who later went on to coach in the NBA, winning Coach of the Year honors with the Indiana Pacers.

 $244 \\ \text{Total number of blocked shots posted} \\ \text{by the 2011-12 Hawks, which is a school record.}$

247 Combined point total in Hawks' 127-120 win in four overtime periods over Utah in the national third-place game at the 1961 NCAA Final Four. It still stands as a school record for overtimes played by an SJU team and combined point total by two teams in a game.

 $310\,$  Phil Martelli's 310th win on December 28, 2011, set the school record for coaching victories. He is the school's all-time leader with 362 entering the 2014-15 season.

Ed Garrity set the Fieldhouse record for points in a game with 40 against Rhode Island on February 4, 1953, a record which still stands.

Delonte West had the "perfect game" at Xavier on Jan. 17, 2004, making all of his shots - 12-for-12 from the field, 3-for-3 from beyond the arc and 6-for-6 from the free throw line.

343 Career record for three-point field goals set by Langston Galloway in 2013-14. The previous mark was 294 held by Pat Carroll.

419 Career blocks record established by Rodney Blake from 1984-88. When he finished his career, Blake was the NCAA's all-time leader in career blocks. That record has since been broken.

1,542 Number of wins by Hawk teams over the 104 seasons of intercollegiate basketball. The 1,500th win was recorded on Feb. 13, 2012 when SJU defeated Fordham. 76-70.

2,094 SJU record for points scored in a career, established by Jameer Nelson from 2000 to 2004.

3,200 Previous capacity at Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which had more than 125 sellouts over the past 12 seasons.

3,500 Average number of times the Hawk flaps its wings during a regulation basketball game as estimated by ESPN's "flap-o-meter."

4,200 Capacity at the Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena, which was dedicated on October 17, 2009, with the first game being a 77-67 overtime win over Drexel on November 13, 2009. This season marks the sixth year of Hagan Arena.

HAGAN ARENA

A new era of Saint Joseph's basketball began on October 17, 2009, with the dedication of the Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena.

The opening of the arena was the culmination of the two-year expansion and renovation of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which was the home of the Hawks since 1949. Hagan Arena added approximately 1,000 seats to stretch the capacity to 4,200, while providing numerous other amenities that were not available in the Fieldhouse.

The Hawks played the first game in the arena against city rival Drexel, on November 13, 2009. A standing-room-only crowd saw an exciting 77-67 overtime win for Saint Joseph's.

During the 2011-12 season, the Hawks recorded a few firsts for the arena. SJU posted its first win over a ranked opponent in the building when it upset 19th-ranked Creighton on December 10. Saint Joseph's also hosted rival Villanova on campus for the first time ever and a standing-room-only crowd cheered the Hawks on to a 74-58 victory. The Hawks also hosted A-10 rival Temple on campus for the first time since 2001 and scored an 82-72 win over the #22 Owls to earn a share of the Big 5 title.

The Hawks are 44-24 in five seasons at Hagan Arena, but own an alltime record of 363-106 on campus, at both Hagan and Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse combined.

Saint Joseph's students lead a passionate fan base that continues to give the Hawks a true homecourt advantage in Hagan Arena.

ALUMNI MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE

Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was the well-loved shrine and home of the Hawks for 59 seasons. With the completion of the multi-year expansion and renovation project that began in Fall 2007, this storied facility was preserved, while bringing the athletic complex to a level befitting such a venerable tradition. Beginning with the 2009-10 season, the new home of the Hawks was the Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena.

Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was named for Saint Joseph's graduates who gave their lives in World War II. The building was dedicated on November 11, 1949, and 15 days later hosted its first basketball game, a 62-46 loss to Rhode Island.

Overall, the men's basketball team compiled a stellar 319-82 record (.795 winning percentage) in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. Among the highlights were a 34-game winning streak from the late 1950s to the early 1960s, an 11-0 record in 2000-01, and another 11-0 mark as the Hawks completed a perfect regular season in 2003-04 behind consensus Player of the Year Jameer Nelson and consensus Coach of the Year Phil Martelli.

For much of the 1980s and 1990s, the Fieldhouse was the practice home of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers. This was a natural extension of a legacy in which Saint Joseph's products – George Senesky '43, Dr. Jack Ramsay '49, Jack McKinney '57, Paul Westhead '61, Jim Lynam '63, Matt Goukas '66, and Jim O'Brien '74 – would become head coaches in the NBA.

Women's basketball came to the Fieldhouse as a Division I program in 1973. In 35 seasons, the women's team compiled an equally impressive 332-117 record (.739 winning percentage) on its home floor. Former Hawk players and coaches include Theresa Grentz, Rene Muth Portland, Jim Foster, Muffet McGraw O'Brien '77, and Geno Auriemma.

The 3,200-seat Fieldhouse hosted more than 125 sellouts over the last 15 seasons. Excitement was at a fever pitch in 2003-04 as crowds watched the Hawks make their historic run to a number-one ranking. The Fieldhouse has played an even larger role in the University's history. Major events such as Commencement, the Hand-in-Hand Festival, and the annual Martin Luther King Day celebration have been held in the building, along with the centennial celebration of the College in 1951. Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke at the Fieldhouse in 1967.

Yet it is the passion of Hawk fans that stands as the greatest legacy of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse. In 2003, Sports Illustrated listed "The 100 Things You Have to Do Before You Graduate." Ranked No. 12 was: "Go to a Saint Joseph's basketball game and shout 'The Hawk Will Never Die' — the most defiant cheer in college sports."

Saint Joseph's fans are among the most passionate in college basketball and the Hawks' student section in Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was filled to capacity for every game.

Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse provided a true homecourt advantage for the Hawks as they won 79 percent of their games in 59 years in the building, and played to standing-room only crowds during the "Perfect Season" in 2003-04. (Below) The Hawks closed out the facility in style, upsetting No. 8 Xavier, 71-66, on March 6, 2008, in the final game before the expansion and renovation project began.

THE PALESTRA

Saint Joseph's has utilized The Palestra as an alternate home venue ever since the beginning of competition of the Philadelphia Big 5 in 1955, playing a number of games there every year. The 2014-15 season marks the 61st Saint Joseph's will play at the site. The Palestra remains an integral part of the history of SJU basketball.

Saint Joseph's "home away from home," the historic Palestra was the Hawks' full-time homecourt for the 2008-09 season as Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse was closed due to the expansion and renovation project. SJU played 13 home games at The Palestra on the campus of the University of Pennsylvania that season, with the only exception being the season opener against Rider, which was played at the Wachovia Center.

Once the Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena was completed in 2009-10, the Hawks continued playing a few key city games at The Palestra. Having won 67 percent of its Palestra games over the years, Saint Joseph's will have one game there this year, against host school Penn

First opened during the 1926-27 season, the building is one of the premier basketball meccas in the world. The 8,722-seat arena has been the home for more than 70 years of Penn basketball and 50 years of Big 5 doubleheaders. It has hosted a multitude of events, including 50 NCAA Tournament games as part of 19 national championship competitions, as well as numerous NIT contests, a season of women's professional games (American Basketball League), and even NBA games in the early history of the league.

The Palestra was cited as "Host to the first NCAA basketball championship game in 1939, and countless classic Philadelphia Big 5 matchups." It is the subject of a 2007 documentary film, The Palestra: Cathedral of Basketball.

It was mentioned at the top of the list of "Must Visit Sports Shrines" in Sports Illustrated's (SI.com) "100 Things You Have to Do Before You Graduate." It was also ranked 34th in ESPN.com's list of the "America's 100 Most Important Sports Venues."

During the summer of 2008 a new floor was installed, replacing one which had existed since the 1980s. The Palestra's lower seating bowl was reconfigured in the summer of 2013, and with that renovation, press row was moved from its longtime home behind the benches and scorer's table to floor level opposite the benches.

Saint Joseph's fans have packed The Palestra over the years for Big 5 games. SJU has been part of 25 sellouts in the past 13 seasons at The Palestra.

Larry Kenney earned All-America honors in 1940 for Coach Bill Ferguson's team.

The "Mighty Mites," so dubbed because of their noticeable lack of size, are among the many Hawk basketball legends. The group (clockwise from left) - Jim Smale, Matt Guokas, Sr., John Kenny, Joe Oakes, Dan Kenney and John McMenamin - led SJU to a combined 54-17 mark over a four-year period (1934-38). They made up for their lack of height with quick passing, smothering defense and an assortment of gadget plays. They were inducted into the Saint Joseph's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000 as a group, along with their coach Bill Ferguson.

PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 ... A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administrations at the five major universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at The Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For over 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 was named the city's "Best Sports Tradition" by the Philadelphia Daily News.

In a city that is passionate about its sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,722 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra...it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series...it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business...it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when he gets thrown into his first City Series game...it's student-athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

No other city in the United States is represented by five major Division I Universities.

The Big 5 – only in Philadelphia.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Don DiJulia

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ATHLETICS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

One of the longest serving administrators in collegiate athletics, Saint Joseph's director of athletics Don DiJulia is now in his sixth decade on Hawk Hill, etching his name in the annals of SJU athletics first as a student-athlete and later as an administrator. In 2012, DiJulia was promoted to vice president for athletics/director of athletics.

DiJulia is in his second stint as the University's top athletic administrator after returning to SJU as associate vice president/athletic director in June of 1988. He has spent 32 of the last 39 years on Hawk Hill.

For the past 24 years, DiJulia has overseen tremendous growth in the University's athletics programs. During his tenure, five varsity programs have been added, a new weight training facility built, athletic fund drives initiated, and athletic facilities have been updated and created. But at the center of his efforts is the enhancement of the student-athlete experience in a variety of programming efforts built around "Developing Everyday Champions."

Saint Joseph's underwent the biggest project in DiJulia's tenure with the expansion and renovation of Alumni Memorial Fieldhouse, which reopened for the 2009-10 season as the Michael J. Hagan '85 Arena. The Jack Ramsay Basketball Center was dedicated in the summer of 2009 and includes state-of-the art facilities for the men's and women's basketball programs as well as athletic communications.

This comprehensive plan to enhance varsity and recreational sports at SJU was completed in 2011-12 as the transition to the James J. Maguire '58 Campus resulted in the creation of varsity fields for baseball, field hockey and softball, six tennis courts, and additional recreation and intramural facilities.

DiJulia was honored at the 2009 NACDA Convention with the Gary Cunningham Lifetime Achievement Award presented by the Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association (DI-AAA ADA), which is the highest award given by the organization. In 2005, he was chosen as the Northeast Regional Division I-AAA Athletic Director of the Year.

He has emphasized the importance of the student-athlete with the institution of the SJU Athletic Director's Honor Roll as well as senior Scholar-Athlete awards during his tenure.

DiJulia has spearheaded Saint Joseph's hosting of numerous conference and national championships including the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Rounds; the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four; and the upcoming NCAA Women's Lacrosse Division I and III Championships in 2015 and 2016 to be held at PPL Park in Chester, Pa.

DiJulia was part of the most compelling story in college basketball in 2003-04 as Saint Joseph's gained the attention of a nation with its successful quest for the perfect regular season and run to the NCAA Elite Eight. With DiJulia leading the way, Saint Joseph's handled the unprecedented demands on the program from its many constituents, including alumni, fans, and media.

A 1967 graduate of Saint Joseph's, DiJulia has worn many hats in college athletics during his more than 45 years of professional experience. His career began in coaching, with a one-year stint as assistant baseball coach at SJU in 1968. He then went on to assistant coaching positions in basketball at Fairfield University, George Washington University and American University.

During his first tenure as director of athletics at Saint Joseph's from 1976 to 1981, DiJulia was instrumental in the planning and construction of the $5 million athletic and recreation complex. He also oversaw the growth of women's athletics as softball and cross country were added as varsity sports.

DiJulia left Saint Joseph's in 1981 to become commissioner of the East Coast Conference, a position he held for two years until leaving to become commissioner of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference from 1984 to 1988.

He is extremely involved in the intercollegiate athletic community, and currently serves on Atlantic 10 Administrative Committee, as well as the conference's Finance Committee and Branding Committee. DiJulia also serves on the Dad Vail Regatta Board, The Institute for Sport/Spirituality and Character Board, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress Executive Board.

A two-sport athlete as an undergraduate in baseball and basketball, DiJulia was a member of the 1964-65 Hawk basketball team which compiled a 26-1 regular season record and a top 10 national ranking under head coach Dr. Jack Ramsay.

In 2005, DiJulia was inducted into the Hall of Fame for his alma mater, St. James High School, and in 2007, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame Delaware County Chapter.

He and his wife, Pat, reside in Havertown, Pa., and have seven children and 13 grandchildren.

Ken Krimmel is in his seventh year as assistant director after serving an internship in the department in 2008. A 2003 graduate of Penn State with a degree in elementary education, he received his master's of education degree from Temple in 2008. The native of State College, Pa., previously was a teacher and assistant basketball coach at North Penn High School. He and his wife, Katie, reside in Ardmore, Pa., with their daughter Taylor.

Dr. Patricia Haslam is in her second year as the learning skills specialist for student-athletes, having worked at SJU since 2005 as a professional tutor for The Writing Center for Student-Athletes and for the Doctoral Program in Educational Leadership. Haslam received her bachelor's degree from Villanova, and her master's and Ph.D from The National University of Ireland in Dublin. She taught for many years in Ireland, Italy and England. She and her husband, Dr. Richard Haslam, an associate professor of English at Saint Joseph's, have three children, Catherine, Isabella, and Richard, and reside in Wynnewood, Pa.

Greder and Krimmel monitor the academic progress of the student-athletes in compliance with SJU and NCAA rules and regulations. The office is a liaison between the athletic department and the faculty, while serving as a secondary academic advisor to the student-athletes, helping with registration, among other issues.

The office also assists student-athletes in career development and runs a five part serices for the freshmen that includes topics relevant to student athletes at SJU. Those topics include, academic honesty, understanding university mission, the registration process, assignment and paper development and preparing for finals.

All freshman student-athletes, along with select upperclassmen, are required to attend study hall four nights a week. The office, located in Bellarmine Hall, has individual study rooms, the computer labs has eleven computers and there are three additional rooms for tutoring. The tutoring staff is comprised of peer tutors, who meet with student athletes one-on-one in a variety of subjects.

Coordinated through the Office of Educational Support Services for Student-Athletes, Saint Joseph's student-athletes utilize numerous support programs available through the University. Those programs include the Learning Resource Center, Career Services, the Counseling Center and the Writing Center. The services available to student-athletes; career choice assistance, academic skills workshops, individual tutoring and personal development, allow for success in the present while preparing for the future.

The office is aware of the challenges today's student-athletes face both on and off the playing field. To prepare them, the Office of Educational Support Services for Student-Athletes organizes and facilitates a Life Skills Program, along with the Athletic Department. This is designed to provide student-athletes with educational experiences that will assist them in bridging the gap from high school to college and from college to professional life. The program is designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The Life Skills Program focuses on the individual as a whole - academically, athletically, and emotionally - and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during and after college. Among the wide range of topics covered are leadership skills, resume writing and interviewing, alcohol and drug awareness, and financial planning.

In conjunction with the Athletic Department, the office also oversees the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), which acts as liaison between the University community and the student-athlete body. Members are selected by respective coaches or team members at the beginning of each academic year. SAAC works to encourage and promote student-athletes to be student leaders that represent individual varsity teams and the entire athletic department as a vocal, integral part of the greater Saint Joseph's community.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Saint Joseph's Sports Medicine Department serves the student-athlete population through the prevention, recognition, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries.

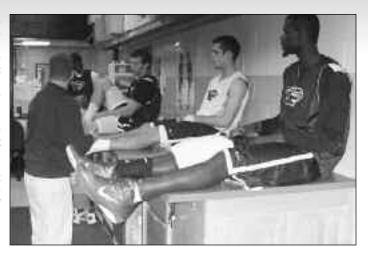

Dr. Lori Sweeney oversees the sports medicine program with the help of head athletic trainer Bill Lukasiewicz and assistant athletic trainers Ryan Obsniuk, Salvatore Capone, Jessica Witzke, and Mitchell Holland. Taking advantage of SJU's state-of-the-art sports medicine facilities, Sweeney also serves as the liaison between SJU and its medical doctors.

Sweeney has worked at SJU for 21 years, serving 13 years as the head athletic trainer after two years as an assistant, prior to being named director of sports medicine. Sweeney coordinates the medical services for all student-athletes. Prior to coming to SJU, she was an administrative assistant and instructor at Temple, worked at Pennsbury (Pa.) and Montgomery (N.J.) high schools and did a two-year stint at Rutgers. The Bridgewater, N.J., native completed her Ph.D. in kinesiology with a concentration in sports medicine from Temple in 2000 with a concentration in sports medicine. She received a bachelor's of science degree from East Stroudsburg (1986) and a master's degree from Trenton State College (1988). She lives in Havertown, Pa. and has two children, Grace and K.T.

Lukasiewicz is in his 17th year at Saint Joseph's, serving as an assistant athletic trainer for nine years prior to becoming the head athletic trainer in 2006-07. His primary responsibility is working with the men's basketball team. (complete bio on page 28)

Obsniuk, who is in his sixth year as an assistant athletic trainer, returned to SJU in 2009 after serving as an intern in 2007. He completed his undergraduate degree in 2007 from Central Michigan and recently received his master's degree in health administration from SJU. A native of Canton, Mich., he worked at Oakwood Sports Medicine, serving as an outreach athletic trainer to a local high school. Obsniuk resides in Upper Darby, Pa., and is currently engaged to former SJU softball standout Erin Gallagher '12.

Capone enters his third year at SJU and is a contract athletic trainer through Main Line Health. He came to Saint Joseph's after 10 years at Neumann University, serving as the athletic trainer and strength coach for the ice hockey team that won the 2009 NCAA Championship. A graduate of West Chester University, he received his master's of science from California University of Pennsylvania in 2009. Capone has also worked for Novacare Rehabilitation and St. Mary Medical Center (N.J.). He resides in Sicklerville, N.J., with his wife Mary Anna with their two children.

Witzke, who served as a student intern in 2011, is in her third year at Saint Joseph's as a contract athletic trainer through Main Line Health. The 2011 graduate of Central Michigan University previously served as the head athletic trainer for the McLaren-Bay Region in Michigan, providing coverage for all sports at Essexville Garber High School. She is pursuing her master's of science degree at SJU and currently resides in Philadelphia.

Holland is in his second year at SJU, having returned to the staff after serving as a student intern in 2013. A 2013 graduate of Central Michigan, he hails from White Lake, Mich., and is pursuing his master's of science degree at Saint Joseph's. He currently resides in Philadelphia.

Rob O'Brien, ATC, PT, currently serves the SJU community and student-athletes as a physical therapist through the University's partnership with MainLine Health.

The Sports Medicine Department works closely with team physicians to provide the student-athletes with the best medical care possible. Among those physicians working with the Hawks are team orthopedist Michael Ciccotti (www.rothmaninstitute.com), Edward Gorrie, M.D. and nurse practitioner Laura Moore in SJU Student Health, and Eugene Hong, M.D., the family medicine-sports specialist through Drexel University School of Medicine.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SERVICES

The Saint Joseph's men's basketball team is provided with all of the services needed to compete at the highest level: strength and conditioning, nutrition, and sports psychology.

Strength and Conditioning

The Saint Joseph's University Strength and Conditioning philosophy is to create safe, progressive and comprehensive strength and conditioning programs that prepare student-athletes to compete at the highest level. This is done by designing sport-specific programs that maximize the student-athlete's performance. Each program is based on orthopedically safe, physiologically sound exercises and comprehensive total body training. By systematically and progressively overloading the muscles trained and holding each athlete accountable for each repetition of each exercise of every workout, the program ensures consistent gains in strength and power. The focus is to teach the athlete to produce maximal force and effort repeatedly for within a given period of time. Additionally, by holding each athlete accountable and expecting them to train with intensity and focus, our program will also improve the mental toughness of every athlete that is trained, giving them more confidence in difficult situations.

Brian Bingaman

Ben Steenrod

Brian Bingaman is in his fifth year as the Hawks' first full-time strength and conditioning coach, and was recently promoted to director of strength and conditioning. He also sets the Hawks' nutrition program and provides guidance year-round. Prior to coming to SJU, he served in the same position at La Salle for five years, and had stints at Duquesne and Penn State. A native of Northumberland, Pa., he was an Honorable Mention All-America in football at Bloomsburg University, graduating in 2003. He earned his master's degree in health education from Penn State in 2008 and owns certification from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in both SCCC (Strength & Conditioning Coach Certified) and United States Weightlifting (Level 1 Club Coach). He and his wife, Colleen, reside in Springfield, Pa., with their newborn son, Bryce.

Ben Steenrod is in his third year at Saint Joseph's, and after serving as a full-time assistant in 2013-14, was promoted to head strength and conditioning coach in 2014. He graduated from Virginia Tech in 2008 and worked with the strength and conditioning staffs at both Virginia Tech and Villanova. He is originally from Charlotte, N.C., and is currently pursuing his master's degree at Saint Joseph's. Steenrod is certified as a Sports Performance Coach through USA Weightlifting.

Sports Psychology

At Saint Joseph's, there is an understanding that reaching one's athletic potential requires mental as well as physical skills. With that in mind, the athletic department provides sports psychology services for student-athletes, teams, and coaches, utilizing one of the nation's top sports psychologists, Dr. Joel Fish.

Strategies are also designed to help teams develop effective communication and teamwork.

Coaches have Dr. Fish as a sports psychology resource to help with team building, motivation, mental toughness, and helping them mental preparation, positive attitude, and clutch performance.

team building, motivation, mental toughness, and helping them work with different personality types. Team captains and leaders are taught effective leadership skills such as positive peer pressure and conflict resolution.

Student-athletes can meet individually with Dr. Fish to discuss offthe-field issues, such as stress management and personal relationships that are impacting upon athletic performance. Confidentiality is maintained in these individual meetings. Referrals, if indicated, are made to the University Counseling Center.

Saint Joseph's University recognizes that there is a connection between a sound mind and a sound body. Sports psychology is an example of the Athletic Department providing its student-athletes, teams, and coaches with a valuable resource for success on and off the playing field.

SJU TRADITION & SPIRIT

Why Hawk Hill?

In the early 1920's, former University president Albert G. Brown, S.J., decided to move the college campus from its location just north of the city at 17th and Stiles to its current site on Philadelphia's city line. He selected the location in part because its hilltop perch overlooking downtown Philadelphia provided a dramatic setting for the construction of the college's main building, Barbelin Hall. In fact, for many years Barbelin's signature carillon tower ranked as the highest point from sea level in the city of Philadelphia. Later, according to oral tradition, students and faculty frequently saw real hawks circling the skies above Barbelin, before swooping down on their prey. The familiar scene eventually led to the coining of the moniker "Hawk Hill."

Crimson and Gray

The college colors of crimson and gray date back to the 1890's when it is related that a young seminarian leading a pep rally saw the colors on a book he was holding. Thinking they looked attractive together, he announced that these would be the school colors.

"The Hawk Will Never Die!"

The Hawk is one of the most famous mascots in the country, best known for staying in constant motion by flapping its "wings" from tip-off to the final buzzer of every game, as well as for "flying" in figure eights around the court during timeouts. The constant flapping, coupled with the scrappy play of the University's athletic teams, helped to spawn the school's familiar slogan "The Hawk Will Never Die!"

The Saint Joseph's University Pep Band, under the direction of Tim Laushey, with his wife Sue, is made up of students from every class. They are often joined by other musicians who are alumni, friends and fans of the Hawks. When not leading the SJU band, the Tim Laushey Orchestra entertains many and backs numerous singers on the East Coast. Laushey was honored by SJU basketball with the "Sixth Man" Award in 1996-97.

ALL-TIME HAWK MASCOTS

One of the most famous mascots in college athletics, the Saint Joseph's Hawk will mark its 59th season in 2014-15. The Hawk's first appearance was on January 4, 1956, in a 69-56 win over La Salle at the Palestra.

THE HAWK WILL NEVER DIE!

ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – Davidson College, The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, George Mason University, The George Washington University, La Salle University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University and Virginia Commonwealth University.

The Atlantic 10 was proactive in navigating sweeping conference realignment, adding George Mason University for 2013 and Davidson College in 2014. The additions follow a very successful first year by Virginia Commonwealth University, which began full membership on July 1, 2012. The league continues to draw national praise for its decisions during conference realignment in selecting institutions driven by academics and basketball. The league was deemed the "winner" of conference realignment in 2011-12. The three additions were guided by the five-year Strategic Initiative Plan that was adopted in 2010-11.

The 14 member institutions of the A-10 are united and strengthened by their diversity. Each is extraordinary in its educational mission, whether of a Catholic faith, a private university or a land grant institution. The varied pursuits of each member prove that there are many threads that weave the fabric for a great conference.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of over 76.5 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this year: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions, in conjunction with Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade, have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation a successful one. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized 2,653 student-athletes in 2013-14.

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors two student-athletes as the A-10 Student-Athletes of the Year. Moreover, the Atlantic 10 provides 10 postgraduate scholarships with $7,000 grants to selected student-athletes. In 2013-14, nearly 200 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition.

The Atlantic 10 Conference annually earns high marks in the NCAA Academic metrics. This includes ranking fifth among all 32 Division I Conferences in the Academic Progress Rate (APR) and in the Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the past year's annuancements.

Success on the playing field has mirrored the A-10's classroom prowess, with the league earning NCAA postseason bids in each of its 21 sports, including two men's soccer bids and a record 13 men's and women's basketball bids. Men's basketball in the A-10 saw a record six teams earn NCAA Tournament berths and for the seventh straight year an A-10 team advanced to the second weekend when Dayton made a run to the Elite Eight.

The 2013-14 men's basketball season, slated to be a down year by some pundits, turned out to be arguably the most successful year in league history. The Atlantic 10 had six teams with 24-plus wins, the only conference that could make that claim in 2013-14. Even before conference play and championships began, the A-10 had made waves, completing its regular-season non-conference schedule by winning 71 percent of those non-league games. A-10 teams also registered 12 wins over ranked teams and 18 wins against the big five conferences. Saint Louis reeled off 19 straight wins to claim the regular season crown. But it was upstart Saint Joseph's that made the magical run to the A-10 Championship game at Barclays Center. The Hawks won their first A-10 title since 1997 with a 65-61 win over VCU on Selection Sunday. This was followed by a record six NCAA Tournament teams from the A-10. Of those six teams, Dayton and Saint Louis advanced past the NCAA Second Round, with UD defeating Ohio State 60-59, and the Billikens making a sharp comeback to beat NC State in overtime, 83-80. Saint Joseph's nearly advanced as well, losing in overtime to eventual national champion Connecticut. Dayton took its turn in the spotlight by advancing to the Sweet 16 by shocking Syracuse and Stanford. Florida stopped the Flyers' from advancing into the Final Four, but UD had earned the A-10 its seventh straight year with a team reaching the Sweet 16. When all was completed, seven of the Atlantic 10's 13 teams that had received votes or been ranked in national polls during the year, and three of those teams got inside the Top 13. The A-10 also had nine of its 13 teams in the top 100 of the RPI ratings, including six teams in the RPI top 50.

The 2015 Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Championship will be held for the third year at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. from March 11-15, and will be televised on CBS for the sixth consecutive year.

Jesuit Basketball Spotlight

The Jesuit Basketball Spotlight project, which is in its fifth year, highlights games between men's and women's teams from the 28 Jesuit colleges and universities across the United States. Each of the 28 is dedicated to strong academics and teaching women and men to serve others and live a faith that does justice.

Jesuit schools on Saint Joseph's schedule this season are Fordham, Gonzaga, Loyola-Maryland, and Saint Louis.

The Spotlight project includes awareness announcements during these designated games and during gamecasts on radio and television, and other awareness opportunities. Jesuit, Catholic colleges and universities in the United States have more than 200,000 students currently enrolled and more than 1.7 million living alumni. The Jesuit educational mission began in Europe approximately 500 years ago.

Basketball was often the secondary topic on Phil Martelli's HawkTalk when the SJU coach and co-host Joe Lunardi got together on the most unique coach's show in the country, which aired for 15 seasons.

Phil Martelli's HawkTalk TV Show

For 15 seasons, Phil Martelli hosted the most unique coach's show in the nation with HawkTalk, which was televised in Philadelphia on Comcast SportsNet. The unscripted half-hour show provided a different twist on the traditional coach's show, with a "Tonight Show" format, putting the emphasis on jokes and lighthearted interviews. In 2001, The Sporting News called it the "nation's best coach's show."

Over the years, the guests ranged from Saint Joseph's students to Martelli family members to sports celebrities and politicians. Former Pennsylvania governor Ed Rendell was among the high-profile guests on HawkTalk, along with former Philadelphia Eagles player Jon Runyan, author and Washington Post columnist John Feinstein, SJU greats Jack Ramsay and Jameer Nelson, former Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Mitch Williams, Philadelphia Flyers great Bernie Parent and SJU alum Vince Papale, whose story was told in the 2006 major motion picture Invincible.

Hawks' All-Access provides high-quality game broadcasts from Hagan Arena via video streaming on SJUHawks.com.

Why S-a-i-n-t Joseph's University?

The corporate title "S-a-i-n-t" Joseph's University, which has been in place since Saint Joseph's was granted university status by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1979, is now the public title of the institution for all aspects of its operations. Previously, the abbreviation "St." Joseph's University was permitted in a number of alumni and athletic contexts.

The vast majority of academic and government publications have referred to Saint Joseph's University since at least 1986, as have most campus references with the exception of athletics. However, university-wide "image campaign" revealed the need to clarify this policy both internally and externally.

According to the most recent edition of the Higher Education Directory, there are at least nine recognized "St. Joseph's" among the nation's colleges and universities. Only one of them – Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia – is a university-level, Master's I, NCAA Division I institution. A complete spelling of Saint Joseph's University in all contexts will help eliminate any confusion among higher education and other public constituencies.

Style information for print, electronic and digital media is available. It includes accepted abbreviations of the corporate name (e.g., "SJU" or "St. Joe's" in headlines or certain informal references) as well as prohibited usages (e.g., partial abbreviations such as "St. Joseph's" or "Saint Joe's").

Please direct any questions to the Office of University Communications at (610) 660-1222.
